PYMATUNING FUND
CUT IS REDUCED

Committee Report Makes Re-

stead Of $750,000

HARRISBURG, July 13.—
Waiting two hours in a night session for the Appropriations Committee to finish its work, the house shortly after midnight today gave the signal for an open track to enactment of relief legislation.

That enactment and adjustment of the special session —is expected as quickly as parliamentary routine of the Pennsylvania assembly will permit.
Economy in government will be the basis of the aid-providing fund.
More than 50 bills were reported to an anxious legislative body that cheered the appearance of the committee.

The measures released from committee carry slashes in appropriation approximately $27,000,000. They embody in a general way the original ideas of the Taft-Turner bloc, although the cuts first proposed were understood to be slightly modified in many cases.

Expect Federal Aid
Money gleaned from these economies will become the nucleus of the fund to provide relief for the jobless, to restore the abatement in appropriations to mothers assistance funds, and to balance the budget.
Federal aid in the sum of about $23,000,000 is anticipated.

Most of the measures reported early today were introduced last week. After receiving two readings they were recommitted to be put in final shape for action.

Action of the committee in releasing the bills favored by the Taft-Turner bloc was expected.

PA NEW OBSERVES

A young man, all doped up in a white linen suit, slipped and made a three-pointed landing on East St.
Tuesday morning. Although the wearer was not hurt, the suit was badly in need of a visit to the cleaners.

That job of tearing up the street car tracks on West Long avenue interests a great many people. Although there were no steam shovels or other machinery used, a crowd of thirty or forty people stood watching the workmen yesterday afternoon.

Figures of Pymatuning dam employment given out by the man who has hired the men for the state locally since it began, certainly furnish proof enough that were the project's appropriation slashed many would be affected. In the Lawrence-Beaver-Butler county area, over which Mr. Meerman's jurisdiction extends, has sent 440 men to the site for between eight and 12 weeks of work since January.

Guidance is being furnished many a tourist-to-be at the New Castle motel these days. The majority have been seeking their information over the phone.

Up at cool Conneaut Lake this week the state convention of the Christian Endeavor organization of Pennsylvania is in progress. Hundreds of delegates are here.

Amelia Earhart Putnam Is Forced Down In Ohio In Cross-Country Flight

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
NEWARK, N. J., July 13.—
Amelia Earhart, famous Trans-Atlantic flyer, added another brilliant chapter in her record of aviation achievements today when she completed a flight across the country, from Los Angeles, Calif., to Newark, in a little over nineteen hours, landing at 12:27 o'clock this afternoon.

PORT COLUMBUS, O., July 13.—
Amelia Earhart Putnam's attempt to break the transcontinental non-stop flight record ran into "tough luck" early today when she was forced to bring her plane down at the Port Columbus airport here for repairs to a faulty gasoline pump.

The aviator resumed her trip eastward a little more than an hour later after the plane had been repaired and refueled with 141 gallons of gasoline. Mrs. Putnam said she expected to reach New York within a few hours.

Mrs. Putnam brought her plane—the Lockheed-Vega in which she recently crossed the Atlantic—down at the airport here at 6:57 o'clock this morning after having been unreported since she took off from Los Angeles yesterday afternoon with hopes of smashing the transcontinental record held by Capt.
Frank Hawks.

Legislators Impressed With Troop F In Review At Mt. Gretna Camp

(Special To The News)
COLEBROOK, Pa., July 13.—
Troop F was on dress parade Tuesday afternoon. Along with the other troops of the 103rd Cavalry, the 11th and 12th infantry, the hospital trains and the ambulance corps, the horse soldiers from New Castle passed in review before Lieutenant Governor Shannon, Major General William C. Price and the Committee on Military Affairs of the Senate and the House.

It was the first review of the encampment but had the snap and appearance of a review of seasoned troops. And among the mounted in line, none showed to any better advantage than Troop F. A partial view by a prejudiced few in the reviewing crowd perhaps, but one that was borne out by military observers who were at the reviewing stand.

For General Price, the commanding general of the 28th Division it marked the beginning of the end of a long and honorable military career. This is his last year as commanding general and when the encampment ends, his active duties end. His successor will probably be Lieutenant Governor Edward C.
Shannon. "One Year Shannon" of the 28th who endeared himself to the 28th Division and the entire A.
E. F. in France.

Legislators Make Visit
Because the Legislature is in session at this time, Adjutant General David J. Davis thought it a good opportunity to have the committees on military affairs see the troops here in action and shortly after noon they left the Capitol. Before the review, a demonstration of chemical warfare and small arms was put on. Tear gas rifle grenade fire was demonstrated and through their tears the legislators agreed that it must be effective in turning back enemies. A smoke screen was then laid, and tear gas mixed with it.

Following the tear gas demonstration the guests were given a demonstration of the new machine gun.

Farm Belt Hails Cattle Price Gain

Increased Purchasing Power Seen As First Move To Break Depression

OMAHA, July 13.—Quickened steps of bustling cattlemen in the chutes at Omaha's rambling Union Stockyards Tuesday reflected the manner in which recent substantial gains in the price of cattle and hogs are being received throughout the agricultural belt.

Chief interest was centered in the still mounting cattle market, which brought still another new top for the month as choice beefs commanded $9.25—a startling contrast with the meager prices of two months ago. Market observers estimated the rise of the past two weeks had hoisted the value of cattle and hogs on Nebraska farms more than $37,000,000.

Not only among the farmers has optimism mounted with the rising stock figures, Ralph Budd, president of the Burlington Railroad, declared that "no other thing that has happened since the depression began has heartened me so much as the
"Unquestionably the rise in commodity prices," he added, "would be the surest way out of the depression.
It forms such a sound foundation.
If commodity prices go up, then the purchasing power of the farmer will be restored. After all the rest of the country cannot be restored until the farmer has purchasing power."

World May Get Details On Pact On Reparations

Great Britain May Reveal What Took Place Be-

MACDONALD GETS
LOT OF EXPLAINING

British Government Is Much Embarrassed As Facts
Leak Out

By LINTON WELLS

LONDON, July 13.—The world at large, after all, may be given the exact details of the "gentlemen's agreement" which accompanied the signing of the Lausanne reparations treaty and resolved the whole question upon American action of reducing or canceling war debts.

Great Britain today stood ready to publish all the papers relating to the conference, awaiting only the assent of other governments concerned. Sir John Simon, foreign secretary, cabled them asking permission.

Embarrassing Questions.
Britain's move to publish details of the agreement was made after an all-day session in the House of Commons which failed, despite explanations by Prime Minister J.
Ramsay MacDonald and Chancellor of the Exchequer Neville Chamberlain, to clear up the situation matterially.

Hampered by David Lloyd George, former premier, Winston Churchill, former chancellor of the exchequer, and other opposition leaders, the government found itself faced with many embarrassing questions.
Finally, after hours of explaining by government leaders attempting to iron out details of the agreement, which rocked the world when its existence became known, Lloyd George remarked:

"That's not all that happened at the Lausanne conference."
PARIS July 13.—A new entente cordiale, binding Great Britain and France in a common stand on war debts and strengthening the European front toward the United States, will be announced shortly, it was learned on reliable authority today.
Preparations of the Franco-British entente, first revealed by the owned by Senator Henri Berenger, former French ambassador to the United States, was later confirmed in well-informed quarters.

Hospital Head Shot And Killed At Washington

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 13.—Dr.
Frank A. Aimeone, 45, Union City, N.
J., head of the Mt. Alto Veterans hospital, was shot and killed today by Frank Cassell, 40, a disabled veteran, formerly of Detroit.
Cassell was captured immediately after the tragedy, but refuses to talk.

Cassell, a former patient at the institution visited the hospital, and asked to see Dr. H. B. Baxley, in charge of mental cases. He was told Dr. Baxley was out. He then went to the office of Dr. Aimeone.
Attaches reported they heard no loud talking. In a few minutes a shot rang out, and Cassell walked from the physician's office where he was taken in custody. Dr. Aimeone was found slumped over his desk with a bullet wound through his heart. A .32 caliber pistol was taken from Cassell.

Records at the veterans administration show that Cassell is on a 50 per cent disability allowance, not service connected.
Hope To Kill
Insects On Trees

John Reed, city employee today inspected Arlington avenue maples which are reported to have attacked the trees can be killed. They may be sprayed with an insect killer or a torch may be used to burn them.

Reed was ordered to perform the work by Councilman Genkiner.

Cement Plant Is Resuming

Lehigh Plant Again In Operation On Thursday Morning

EIGHT HOUR SHIFT
PLAN TO BE FOLLOWED

There is smoke pouring from the stacks of the Lehigh Portland Cement plant on the East Side, today for the first time in many months and there is joy in the hearts of 150 families as preparations have been completed to start the plant in full tomorrow morning.
Superintendent William H. Kleckner stated today that all arrangements have been made to resume operations, and that it is hoped to keep the plant running until early in the winter.

Three 8-Hour Shifts
Unfortunately not all the old employees of the plant can be put back to work at this time, but an effort is being made to place every married man. In order to provide as much work as possible for the greatest number of men three eight-hour shifts will be operated instead of two twelve-hour shifts as heretofore.

Lack of coal may hold up operations slightly at the start, but it is hoped that enough can be secured to keep the plant running continuously after tomorrow. There has been some difficulty in getting shipments immediately.

Work of getting the plant in shape to start has been going forward for the past two weeks, and everything is set to start the wheels turning tomorrow.

Announcement of the resumption of activities at the plant will be welcome news to everyone in New Castle, as it indicates a gradual speeding up of industry along all lines. Not only will employees of the cement industry be given employment, but the coal mines and railroads will be benefited.

While no definite assurance is given as to how long the plant will be in operation, if business picks up in the building industry, the plant will be able to run on into the winter. At any rate, operations will be continued at the plant until late in the fall, it is expected.

The bins of the company are almost empty now and it will require quite a bit of cement to refill them.

Arrest Quintet For Entering Farmhouse

County Detective H. Martin Lee, Assistant County Detective Bernard Rocks, and Constable George Kennedy arrested five people at a camp along the Neshannock Creek in Hickory township this morning, charging them with breaking and entering.

It is alleged that the quintet, Mr. and Mrs. Florentine Ketter, John Williams, Tony Aben, and F. Buxton, broke into the farmhouse occupied by Samuel Biggs on the old Elder farm, near East Brook, and stole bedding, dishes and cooking utensils which they were using at their camp.

They will be given a hearing before Alderman O. H. P. Green on Thursday afternoon.

Libby Holman Had Little Acting Talent In University Days

MRS. LIBBY HOLMAN REYNOLDS

By Central Press
CINCINNATI, July 13.—Huskyvoiced buxom Libby Holman, nee Elizabeth Lloyd Holzmamm, was born 29 years ago in Avondale, a Cincinnati suburb largely populated by prospering Jewish families. Her father, Alfred Holzmamm, now also Holman, was and is a practicing attorney of good standing, who altered the family name during the World war. The Holmans always have lived comfortably though un-pretentiously.

Play-acting early became the favorite pastime of Libby, as the girl was called by her family and schoolmates. At Hughes High school, Libby, a good pupil, was eagerly anticipated by her friends.

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., July 13.—The showplace of the late Smith Reynolds, 29-year-old heir to tobacco millions, was closed today and only a murder mystery was left behind.

Mrs. Libby Holman Reynolds, the Broadway singing star, who came to the palatial estate of "Reynolds" but little more than a month ago for a gay southern honeymoon, has gone back a widow to her home in Cincinnati.

Guests Depart.

The house guests at the party which ended in tragedy have departed and it may be many a day before the house of sorrows again swings open its doors.

The question of who shot and killed Smith Reynolds was no nearer solution today than it ever was.
Sheriff Transou Scott, with much to clear up, but few definite leads to follow, settled down to making a thorough investigation of the mystery. He frankly hoped for a "break" to aid him in solving the case.

The grand jury which is meeting this week showed no sign of taking up the case of its own initiative. If there is a development soon it was expected to come directly from the grand jury.

New Relief Bill Is Being Rushed At Washington

Measure Being Revised To Meet Approval Of President Hoover

MAY REACH WHITE HOUSE LATE TODAY

Conferees Are Considering Changes In Bill This Afternoon

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 13.—
The revised Garner-Wagner bill passed by the senate last night in record time is still objectionable to President Hoover in some respects, Rep. Rainey, of Illinois, Democratic house leader, announced today.

Determined to give the President what he wants, the house will proceed to enact its own $2,122,000,000 bill which was revised after conference with Mr. Hoover, the Democratic leader said.

To Change Features

Mr. Hoover, Rainey said, objects to the Glass amendment permitting Federal reserve banks to loan to private corporations under restrictions, and wants a provision for establishment of agricultural credit banks modified so private sources would contribute one half of the $3,000,000 capital for each bank.

Rainey said the house would follow a procedure which would throw the relief measure into conference with the senate this afternoon.

While Rainey's statement blasted hope of senate leaders of ending the fight by having the house accept its bill, there was still a strong possibility the measure would reach the White House by night.

Goes To Columbus To Secure Man Sought In Robbery

Deputy Sheriff William Reynolds went to Columbus, O., today for Clyde Burch, who is wanted here for the robbery of the Norman Jewelry store, several years ago.
Burch and Leo Grisdale were indicted here by a grand jury on December 14, 1928. Grisdale was never arrested. Burch was picked up in Youngstown, and as he was wanted on a charge there he was tried in the Mahoning county courts and sentenced to the Columbus penitentiary for a period of not less than three years.

Authorities there were notified that he was wanted here and sent word recently that he was about to be discharged. He will step out of the penitentiary into the hands of Deputy Sheriff Reynolds, and will be brought here for trial. About $700 worth of jewelry was secured when the show window of Norman's Jewelry store was broken.

But the heat waves will be easy, they

GRAND JURY CONTINUES PRISON CAMP PROBE

Ask Removal Of Prison Captain

Florida Grand Jury Demands Prison Captain Be Given Dismissal

CONTINUE PROBE OF YOUTH'S DEATH

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., 13.—The Duval county grand jury, which indicted two guards for the alleged "torture murder" of Arthur Mallefert, 19-year-old New Jersey boy, was on record today as demanding the dismissal of Prison Captain J. H. Baker, who had charge of the prison district in which the youth died.

A presentation, returned by the grand jury to the county court, called for the prison captain's removal. The grand jury, through its foreman, Al. F. Gorman, Jacksonville business man, will communicate its demand to agriculture commissioner Nathan Mayo, who has jurisdiction over all the state's prisons. Mayo has the power to remove Baker.

Baker was held responsible for the conditions at the Sun Beam camp, where Mallefert met his death in a sweat box, strangled by a chain that dangled him from the roof of the torture chamber. The boy had been trusted up by guard captain George W. Courson and guard Solomon M. Hittinbotham after a futile attempt to escape from the prison camp. The two guards were indicted for first degree murder and released under $5,000 bail each, pending trial in September.

The grand jury meanwhile resumed its inquiry into conditions at the Sun Beam camp. It suspended its sessions yesterday when two guards, Gordon Denmark and R. S. Simms, could not be found. Both men were reported missing from the vicinity of the camp since the night Mallefert died.

reds are attending. Ne Castle and vicinity has a delegation present, while others from here motor to each night's session.

This typewriter of Pa Newc's has its "off day" occasionally and makes a slip that causes Pa to blush with embarrassment. But it did its worst trick in yesterday's column when it typed the following sentence—"If it rains on St. Swithen's Day it will continue for forty years." That should have read "forty days," folks, if you didn't guess it.

Work of placing Boyles Field tennis courts in shape has been completed and at an early hour this morning, all four of the courts were in use, tennis enthusiasts apparently having been eager to start playing. The courts are reported in good shape.

Among the fishermen of the county making catches of note, Pa Newc must add Mr. Hawk, of Lake-wood. He caught a bass measuring 17½ inches, in the Neshannock, near East Brook yesterday.

After conversing with several local folks who have recently returned from Canada where they spent the past few weeks in fishing, Pa Newc states that the majority have been disappointed to a certain extent. While the fish responded fairly well, it apparently seems to be far from the average catch of many who have made the Canadian waters their quarters for this sport on previous occasions.

Saw something that is rather unusual here. A car with a Texas license plate on it and parked right behind it, a car bearing an Arizona license plate. The cars had no connection in any way with each other, although the plates are issued by adjoining states.

One of the New Castle mailmen told Pa Newc today that this was the hottest day of the year, and maybe he's right. Those new telephone directories are heavy and that's where the rubs came in. When a mailman says it's hot, it must be.

Bonus Marchers Sleep On Lawn Of U. S. Capitol

California Delegation Seeks To Force Action On Bonus Measure

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 13.—The weird spectacle of more than 500 tattered bonus marchers asleep on the lawn of the United States Capitol greeted pristine Washington today.

Ragged trousers loosened, broken shoes resting beside mile-worn feet, the tired veterans slept like dead men, with newspapers for blankets and their arms for pillows, on ground which signs boldly proclaimed "No Trespassing."

Led by a man with a broken neck, they trekked to the Capitol to present a petition to congress for payment of soldiers' adjusted compensation certificates, gathered on the lawn and settled down for the night. They stayed there in defiance of all regulations and in spite of vigorous, although not physical, efforts of police to send them to their quarters downtown. They announced they intended to stay there until congress does something about their bonus.

A party isn't like a man. The farther it straddles, the less danger there is of spitting.

and outstanding in school dramatics. At the University of Cincinnati, where she majored in English, Libby soon became the popular star in theatrical productions ranging from serious attempts at full-fledged drama to spur-of-the-moment vaudeville.

Libby's school successes were taken for granted, as her elder, and only, sister Marion, now Mrs. Myron Kahn, had been even more successful, so far as college theatricals go. People said Marion had more talent than Libby possessed, and expected great things of her.

Libby dropped dramatics after her graduation and taught in the Cincinnati public schools for a year or two prior to her marriage.

Gave No Indication Of Singing
At the university Libby gave little indication that singing would put her name in lights on Broadway. In fact, no one, including herself, ever praised her vocal efforts at all high school, probably because Marion could sing blues songs as well as most professionals. At any rate, Libby's ambitions did not lie in the path that brought her acclaim. She desired then, as she said recently she still desires, to be an exponent of the drama, after the fashion of Bernhardt, Barrymore and other celebrities.

With her University of Cincinnati A. B. degree in her satchel, Libby journeyed to New York for further study in English and dramatics at Columbia university. While studying there for a master's degree Libby helped pay expenses by obtaining "extra" jobs and small parts in various productions, chiefly on the legitimate stage.

Always possessed of a somewhat husky voice, Libby met a fortunate misfortune when she contracted a throat ailment that required an operation for permanent relief. Upon her recovery she discovered a new quality in her voice—the sonorous slide trombone effect that was to prove her most valuable asset.

Her "Moanin' Low"
After several relatively unimportant parts in Broadway shows she was chosen to co-star with Clifford Webb and Fred Allen in the first "Little Show." Libby's chief songs in that show, "Moanin' Low" and "Can't We Be Friends," brought instant success and high earnings.

At the peak of her money-making power Libby announced she still desired to star on the legitimate stage, but apparently deferred any work in that direction until, as she said, she could accumulate enough capital to provide her a yearly income of $15,000, the amount she deemed necessary to live and travel and study as she desired.

A packed auditorium greeted 14-year-old Evangelist Sarah Road, of Wellsburg, W. Va., as she made her first appearance last night at the City Rescue Mission. The girl speaker preached the evening's sermon on "Repentance."

Tonight and on other evenings this week at 8 o'clock the girl may be heard at services. Her father, a minister, and her brother and sister, and others, assist.

LEGISLATORS IMPRESSED WITH TROOP AT MT. GRETNA

onstrast of the one pound gun and the trench mortar. Some splendid marksmanship was shown at nine hundred yards with the one pounder.

From there the guests were taken to Camp Headquarters for an inspection of the supplies depot and the afternoon closed with the review.

Troop F Impressive
Troop F has adjusted itself to the camp life with ease. By comparison with the other troops the New Castle lads stand out. Their dining room equipment is especially noticeable as compared with that of the others and the general superiority of the dining room is reflected in the appearance of the tents and equipment.

Troop F is an outfit of real soldiers and at the risk of creating a riot with ex-troopers it might be said that it is a little ahead of any unit ever sent out of New Castle to Colebrook.

Thus far no field problems have appeared on the schedule of drill. Tuesday afternoon the troop qualified on the mounted pistol range and the saber course. All but two men are now qualified in the use of sabers and these two will be qualified later.

The quality of the food being served is unusually high. Mess Sergeant Florida and his cooks are feeding the men clean, wholesome food, properly cooked and served hot. The menus show no caviar or chocolate eclairs but beef and beans and the other staples are present in abundance.

The troop had as its guests for supper Tuesday evening Senator George T. Weingartner, Assemblyman Bart Richards and Richard E. Rentz. They witnessed the review of the troop and the evening with the troop.

Because of economy measures in the Federal government the 104th regiment of cavalry is not in camp during this tour of duty but will come in when the 103rd leaves. This was done to make the horses do for both regiments. Troop F is using its own horses and those of Troop F of Punksutawney and at the conclusion of this camp Troop F of New Castle will leave its horses here for the use of the Punksutawney boys. Six new horses will be brought back to New Castle making their total 32 horses.

The New Castle troop is determined to leave camp with a record for efficiency. The troop looks like soldiers, and acts like soldiers and is a credit to the city from which it comes.

EARLY ENACTMENT OF RELIEF MEASURE IN STATE FORECAST

Turner bloc had the effect of giving that group's program precedence over the 4-point plan agreed upon by Gov. Gifford Pinchot and political leaders.

The governor has consistently opposed wholesale cutting of appropriations. In the event that the bloc program passes both houses in its present shape, the action of the governor on the bills will become problematical in view of his statements.

The governor had abated appropriations before the session was called and a series of bills introduced the day the legislature convened called for restoration of the abatements. It was stated that many of these bills will be released from committee so that if the measures of the bloc program should be vetoed, hospitals and various other state-aided institutions would not be made to suffer. Abated appropriations of the mothers' assistance fund were restored in the bills released this morning.

See Early Adjournment
Only a concerted attack by administration forces can now prevent early adjournment, leading legislators indicated. While the bloc bills were in committee and protests were made by various departments, some changes were made but in others the original reductions were permitted to stand.

The latter was true in the item which cut $60,400 from the amount allowed to conduct the governor's office. The governor let it be known that such a cut could not be sustained and asked that it be made less stringent. The committee refused.

The salary and expense item of the Department of Forests and Waters, originally cut by $235,000, was changed so that the cut would be $85,600.

Reduce Pymatuning Fund Cut

The slash in the Pymatuning Dam project appropriation was first set at $750,000 but the committee changed it to $400,000. A $45,000 cut the appropriation for the purchase of state park lands was provided for in one of the bills and the committee fixed the cut at $40,000. These changes made the total cut for the Department of Forests and Waters amount to $980,650. Originally the slash was $1,484,650.

In the Department of Health, amended bills cut appropriations $200,000. The bills in original form cut $470,000 from the 1931 appropriations.

Salaries and expenses in the Department of Labor and industry were ordered reduced by $228,200 in an amended bill which originally provided for a cut of $378,200.

An item for maintenance, erection and improvement of buildings and new construction at Pennsylvania State College was cut $221,449 in contrast to the first proposed reduction of $970,000.

All other schools and colleges in the commonwealth receiving state aid had their original 1931 appropriations cut ten per cent by the committee instead of the varied cuts provided for in the first draft of the bills.

SHOWPLACE HOME OF LATE SMITH REYNOLDS ON ESTATE IS CLOSED

why he should bring the case before the grand jury.

No New Information.

"The coroner's jury, composed of honorable men, has heard all the testimony and considered it carefully," said Higgins. "They are not satisfied and according to their veredict do not know how Smith Reynolds came to his death."

"At this time we have no additional information," Solicitor Higgins pointed out that under the North Carolina law the solicitor is not permitted to go before the grand jury and present facts.

"If the grand jury should call for the records in the case I should consider it my duty to present them," said Higgins. "Thus far they have not done so."

Conflicting Testimony.
The coroner's jury, which heard the sensational testimony given by witnesses at the inquest held in the Reynolds home, brought in a verdict of young Reynolds having met his death from a person or persons unknown. It took them several hours to agree on a verdict in the fact of the mass of conflicting testimony concerning the events at the party which ended in the body of Reynolds being found on a sleeping porch with a bullet through his head. The death was originally recorded as a suicide.

A member of the coroner's jury said today that the jury did not wish to "pass the buck" to the sheriff or the grand jury but felt that their verdict was the only possible one, considering the nature of the evidence.

Reaches Cincinnati.

(International News Service)
CINCINNATI, O., July 13.—Successfully eluding curious crowds, Libby Holman Reynolds arrived at Cincinnati, an isolated railroad junction eight miles out of Cincinnati, today and was scurried away secretly to the fashionable home of her sister, Mrs. Myron Kahn, in Wyoming, a suburb.

A limousine, belonging to the Holman family, met the tragic-faced widow of the late Smith Reynolds, 20-year-old heir to tobacco millions, and whisked her away.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Blanche Yurka, actress who was a guest at the house party which preceded the death of the late Smith Reynolds, eluded reporters today on her return to New York from Winston-Salem, N. C.

Apparently she and Raymond Cramer, Reynolds' mathematics tutor, left the Piedmont Limited at Manhattan Transfer. They were not on the train when it reached the Pennsylvania station at 6:50.

Five Hundred At Orange Picnic

Approximately 500 members of the Victory district Orange lodges and Ladies Orange lodges of Beaver and Shenandoe valleys attended their annual outing at Cascade park, yesterday. Hugh Shields, New Castle, was chairman of the picnic committee; Mrs. Davis, New Castle, chairman of the dance committee and Mr. Calahan of Ellwood City was chairman of the sports committee. Dancing and athletics featured the afternoon.

Rev. Chas. Hulme And Children Are Here For Visit

Former Resident Is Back From California After Twenty Six Years Absence

Rev. Charles H. Hulme, daughter, Annabelle, and son, David, of Bakersfield, California, are here on a visit to Rev. Hulme's brother, Lawrence Hulme, of Edgewood avenue.

Rev. Hulme is a former New Castle boy, but has been in the west for many years, this being his first visit here for any length of time in 26 years.

By a peculiar co-incidence, he missed meeting his brother, Jack Hulme, widely known member of the Westminster college sports department, as Jack is enroute to California at the present time for the Olympics.

Rev. Hulme and children will go on to New York and Washington for a brief visit before returning to California.

TUESDAY KENSINGTON HONORS MRS. LANDIS

Associates of the Tuesday Kensington entertained at a delightful party on Tuesday when they gathered in the home of Mrs. George Landis on Garfield avenue to honor her, as she is leaving the city in the very near future to take up residence elsewhere.

The guests assembled at 2 o'clock and enjoyed a period of informal diversions. After partaking of a delicious buffet lunch, Mrs. Landis was presented with a beautiful gift by Mrs. Lillie B. Jones in behalf of the Kensington testifying to the high esteem in which she is held. She in turn, accepted most graciously and a tinge of sadness fell when words of appreciation for her splendid work while in this vicinity were told by Mrs. Jones.

In bringing the afternoon to a close, little four year old Marian Landis favored the guests with a pretty song and her sisters, Ruth and Grace rendered a beautiful piano duet, their numbers being well received.

Adjournment was called, when a group picture was taken on the front lawn. The next meeting will be held on July 26 and will be in the form of a breakfast at Cascade Park.

B. And O. Outing Program.

Thursday, July 14, the B. and O. outing will be held at Cascade Park under the auspices of the Auxiliary and Veterans, to which an invitation is extended to all employees. Each will provide their own table service, bread and butter.

The program for the day in charge of T. N. Hockman, chairman follows: twenty-five yard race for stout women; fifty yard race for stout men; slender women and slender men; sack race handcap—open to all; 100 yard dash—open; 100 yard dash for boys, 16 years and under; watermelon contest open; tug-o-war; rod jump; pole vault and high jump events open to everyone; blind folded wheelbarrow race for women and a paper bag race—open. This program will begin at 4 o'clock and at 6 p. m. dinner will be served in the grove. A record crowd is expected.

Queen Esther Picnic

LADIES OF THE LIONS AFTERNOON BRIDGE

Among the week's social activities, the bridge party of the Ladies of the Lions attracted almost one hundred women of the city to the club house of the Municipal Golf course Tuesday afternoon, when an affair was held, the proceeds of which will be used by the women in the work among the blind of Lawrence county.

Auction bridge, contract bridge and five hundred were the diversions of the afternoon and when play was over lovely prizes were awarded Mrs. M. A. Boyd for high score at auction; Mrs. H. C. Hadsell, contract, and Mrs. A. J. Campbell, five hundred.

The small tables, attractively appointed then served as refreshment tables. Mrs. B. M. Rodgers, Mrs. R. L. Boyd, Mrs. Jesse Gibson, Mrs. Jack Gerson and Mrs. Anson McKee, members of the social committee, were in charge of the arrangements.

Brown-Reale Nuptials

At the Third United Presbyterian church on Tuesday noon, before an altar beautifully embanked in white flowers Miss Helen E. Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Brown of Hamilton street, became the bride of Armando Reale, son of the Rev. S. B. Cope, pastor, officiated with the ring service in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride was attired in a gown of yellow tulle with white picture hat and accessories to harmonize, and carried an arm bouquet of white roses and Madonna lilies. Her attendant, Helen Bordonaro, wore a frock of blue organdie fashioned to with long full skirt and hat and matching accessories. Her flowers were an arm cluster of pink roses.

Tony Cole served as best man. Mrs. Margaret Gibson, pianist, and Arthur Budzinski, violinist, furnished appropriate selections, preceding, and during the ceremony.

After the congratulatory period a wedding dinner was served at the home of the groom.

The couple will take up their residence at New Wilmington, Pa.

West Side Needlecraft

The West Side Needlecraft club members held their breakfast outing at Cascade Park Tuesday morning instead of this morning as planned. A good number participated, and after partaking of an appetizing menu served in the grove, the hours were spent most informally.

Special guests included Mrs. Carl Leathers and niece, LeVerne. In three weeks the club will meet again, the place to be announced.

McConnell Reunion Saturday

The descendants of F. E. McConnell will gather at the home of Clair Matthews on Harbor street, Saturday, July 16 for their annual reunion. Dinner will be served at noon.

QUOTA CLUB MEMBERS PICNIC AT LAKEWOOD

Another enjoyable summer event was chalked on the social calendar for Quota club members when they gathered at Lakewood Beach for a picnic outing on Tuesday evening. Twenty-five participated including Mrs. Elizabeth J. White and two children of Washington, D. C., and Misses Jessie and Mary O'Fendering who are visiting from Dubois.

A sumptuous menu was served at 6:30 o'clock, the tables being nicely arranged. Pep singing added to the evening's activities, and later swimming and other pastimes were in vogue.

Plans are formulating for other gatherings of this nature to take place sometime before the regular sessions are resumed in the fall.

F. O. LUNCHEON CLUB AT WEINGARTNER HOME

A prettily appointed 1 o'clock luncheon featured the gathering of the F. O. Luncheon Club members Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Weingartner on the Butler road when she entertained informally at their regular social session with Mrs. Mary Ohl Clark acting as associate hostess.

A very delicious menu was served at tables attractively decorated and following a contest in cards was in order. Mrs. Nell Knox and Mrs. W. A. Wynn were presented the prizes for capturing honors at the close of play.

As a special guest, the members had Mrs. J. F. Bradley of Hubbard, Ohio, sister of Mrs. Weingartner. Plans were completed for a picnic outing to be held on Wednesday, August 3, at Rock Creek, Ohio, with Mrs. W. D. Fullerton as hostess, which will mark their next event.

HADASSAH BRIDGE IS HELD TUESDAY

One of the attractive social events of this week was the Thrift bridge party given by the members of the New Castle Chapter of Hadassah in the Beth Shalom Center, Boyle avenue, Tuesday evening.

Bridge was in play during the evening and when play was over prizes were awarded Mrs. L. Groden, Mrs. E. Kaplan, Mrs. L. Zeeve, Mrs. D. Frank, Mrs. L. Reinhardt, Mrs. A. Fisher and May Frank.

Mrs. M. Schoenberger and Mrs. J. Silverman were in charge when the dainty refreshments were served. Out of town guests included Mrs. Yetta Allen of Chicago, Mrs. Sally Nixon, California and Mrs. M. Frank of New York City.

MRS. ARMSTRONG IS VISITING HOME HERE

Mrs. Sue Harvard Armstrong, of New York City, has arrived in New Castle to spend several weeks with her father, John B. Harvard, of 416 Euclid avenue.

Mrs. Armstrong, who has won distinction in the musical circles of New York by her beautiful voice, has many friends in this city, her former home.

TUESDAY EVENTS AT FIELD CLUB ENJOYED

Contract bridge and mixed foursome at golf will be regular Tuesday evening diversions for New Castle Field club members as a result of the successful efforts of the social committee and golf committees.

The innovation was inaugurated last evening and was greatly enjoyed. Partners in the mixed foursomes were drawn by lot at 6:30 and after completing nine holes of golf the remainder of the evening was spent in contract. Prizes for high scores at bridge were awarded to Mrs. J. A. Connhalter and C. Ed Smith Jr.

Nancy Reynolds Meeting

The Nancy Reynolds Quaker Sisters of the Epworth Methodist church met Tuesday evening in the home of Miss Esther Reynolds, on Fairfield avenue, and an election of officers was held, with Miss Esther Reynolds named president; Gertrude Potter, vice president; Marguerite Mellon, corresponding secretary; Margaret Williams, recording secretary; Ruth Buchanan, treasurer; Mary Buchanan, mite box secretary; Dorothy Barnes supplies; Dorothy Depp spiritual life; Pauline Parker, thank offering; and Hazel Armstrong, citizenship.

Plans were made for a supper at Cascade Park on August 8. Games and chatter filled the remaining evening hours and Ruth Buchanan aided the hostess in serving the refreshments.

Jollikousins Clubs

Miss Mae Cromie of the Harlansburg road proved a pleasing hostess Tuesday evening when she entertained the Jollikousins club in her home. A treasure hunt opened the activities, with Gerladine McClelland winning the prize. Following games and guessing contests on the front lawn were enjoyed, the trophy going to Mrs. Gladys Marshall.

A short business session was called, and plans were made for a picnic event to take place on Thursday, July 14 at Cascade park. The serving of a dainty repast by the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. Hugh Cromie, Thelma Gardner and Mrs. Florence DePuy. In two weeks the regular meeting will occur with the latter as hostess in her home on East Washington street.

Martha Lodge Picnic

Members of the Martha Lodge of True Iovites met at Cascade Park Tuesday for a one o'clock picnic dinner, with places arranged for thirty two at tables prettily decorated with flowers.

Bingo was the pastime of the afternoon and prizes were awarded Mrs. Thomas Gray, Mrs. Thomas Sullivan and Mrs. Sol Davies. Mrs. Rees T. Williams was a special guest.

The affair was such a decided success that plans were made for a family picnic to be held in August.

Tigers Auxiliary

In the rooms of the Tigers Club on South Mill street, Mrs. George Ross held a shower in honor of her daughter Helen, a bride-elect of this month. The rooms were decorated cleverly in rainbow colors and guests numbering 250 participated in the activities planned.

Special features included a vocal solo by Mrs. John Mastrangelo accompanied by Mr. Frank Colao and an acrobatic dance by Tootsie Mangieri. Card playing and dancing filled in the balance of the evening. The honored guest was the recipient of a large number of beautiful gifts.

Millers In Reunion

Cousins of Will G. Miller, of Los Angeles, with their families and a few friends, gathered at the C. E. Fullerton home at Covert station last night to enjoy a reunion planned as an honor to Mr. Miller, who with his wife will leave for their western home in a month.

Nearly 50 relatives shared the outing. Outdoor sports and cards were the diversions. W. G. Miller is a brother of Mrs. S. L. McCracken, this city, and J. F. Miller, of near Mt. Jackson.

Entertain Guests

Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Farr, Lincoln avenue, entertained the choir of the First Methodist church of Sharon in their home Monday evening.

The guests enjoyed an evening of music and conversation after which the hostess assisted by Mrs. L. M. Ramont and Mrs. Sabina Leipheimer served refreshments.

ST. ANDREWS GUILD HOLDS FAMILY PICNIC

Most successful was the first family picnic outing held by members of the Junior Guild of St. Andrews Episcopal church on Tuesday afternoon, when thirty-five motored to an wayside inn on the Perry highway. The tables beautifully appointed with summer flowers presented a pretty setting, and a delectable menu was served. Just before the completion of this part of the program, David Riley arose and gave a speech and presented Ben Perry with a large birthday cake, in behalf of the Guild members, which was indeed a complete surprise. At this time, he was given a collection of many handsome gifts in memory of the day.

Following, races and contests were indulged in, and prizes awarded; namely, small children's race, De-Jones Perry; children's ball throw, Fern Riley; girls race 14 to 20, Florence Hitchen; potato race, Jean Riley; voice contest, Ann Hitchen and William Riley; peanut throw, Frank Smith; ladies' cracker eating contest, Elizabeth Smith; potato spoon race, Margaret Blight and the egg race, Ben Perry and John Hitchen. A tug of war was another feature with the men in the crowd being the winners and candy scrambles and shuffle board events also filled in the time, bringing to a close a very enjoyable occasion.

The committee in charge included Miss Kathryn Smith, general chairman, and aides, Elizabeth Smith, Ada Riley, Morfydd Owens, Margaret Blight and May Perry.

MYSTIC ORDER OF "C" GATHER AT CASCADE

A decided success was the picnic outing held by members of the famous "Mystic Order of the C" of which Harry Gibson, as "Kingfish" presided in a very humorous and efficient manner on Tuesday evening.

When all had assembled, they numbered forty-seven, and at 6:30 o'clock a bountiful menu including many tasty dishes were served at large tables appropriately decorated, in the grove.

Concluding this feature, the park amusements furnished entertainment and dancing at the pavilion concluded the evening.

Leave On Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Kerr and son, Alex. Gilroy, Calif., who have been visiting here for some time, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Buchanan and daughter, Eliza Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Kerr and Mrs. Ola Crill of this city and Mrs. Harry Gillespie of Alliance, Ohio, left today for a few days motor trip to Niagara Falls, Buffalo and other interesting points in New York state.

Surprise Party

Miss Mary Cimperman of South Mill street entertained a group of friends in her home honoring the 17th birthday anniversary of Miss Clara Maracher. The event was in the form of a surprise and proved most delightful.

Music and dancing were the pastimes, and at the close of the leisure period, a delicious lunch was served by the hostess. The balance of the evening was spent at Cascade Park.

Central School Girls Meet

The New Castle girls of Grade 6 of the class of 1903 at Central School will have a meeting for the purpose of completing plans for their annual school picnic to be held at Cascade Park on July 28th at 8 o'clock. S. T. at the home of Mabel McCandless on East Washington street.

MRS. EVELYN WOODS IS GRAND REGENT

At the meeting of Court Theresa Irene No. 231, Catholic Daughters of America, held in the Knights of Columbus lodge room on Monday evening, Mrs. Evelyn G. Woods was selected as grand regent in the place of Mrs. Ida Suber, who recently resigned. Plans for a picnic were considered and an announcement of the time and place is to be made later. The next regular meeting of the organization will be held Monday, July 25, 1932.

Birthday Celebration

Christine Ungar was honored on Saturday evening when a group of approximately fifty friends and relatives gathered in his home at 513 Sampson street in surprise fashion, the occasion being his birthday anniversary.

Cards and other pastimes of a wide variety provided entertainment for the guests until late hour when a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. C. Ungar, assisted by Mrs. Michael Schuller, Mrs. A. Kresle and Miss Freda Ungar.

At an appropriate time, the honored guest was presented with a number of handsome gifts in a unique manner. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Mantch and daughter Mary and Mr. and Mrs. John Welter of Beaver Falls.

T. N. T. Club

Mrs. Charles Freeman's cottage was the scene of an enjoyable event Tuesday when the T. N. T. club members gathered with Mrs. James Cypher as hostess. A picnic dinner was served at noon, the menu being served by Mrs. Cypher assisted by her daughters Mrs. Freeman and Miss Tillie Cypher.

Later, sports and boating were featured, as well as other events, until time to depart.

Miss Margaret Hogue, Mrs. McCullough, Miss Gertrude Hitchcock and Miss Eleanor Heckart were special visitors of the club.

R-Nu-Club

The R-Nu-Club members were entertained at the home of Maryann Wrona on Ashland avenue last evening, the business session being presided over by Genevieve Glink. A new member Dolly Piesz was taken in at this time, and plans for a picnic on July 24 were completed.

Music and dancing were the pastimes that followed, and a light lunch served by the hostess at the close of the evening.

Miss Mary Piesz of Ashland avenue will entertain at the regular meeting on July 26.

Will Honor Guest At Party
Mrs. Norris Mitchell of Highland avenue, has issued invitations to a few friends for a party to be held in her home Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Ralph McWilliams who is visiting in this vicinity from Gibbstown, New Jersey. The occasion will be in the form of a 500 party.

Auxiliary Meeting

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in the Legion Home North Jefferson street and Mrs. E. J. Suber, president asks that names be brought in for the Sally Homer scholarship.

Theta-Nu Club

The Theta-Nu Club members will meet at the home of Mrs. Mildred Johns on East Long avenue Thursday evening instead of Friday, as planned.

Guests At Park

Visiting Jasper Park Lodge, Jasper National Park, Alberta, are P. S. Hoyt and Miss Emma Hoyt of this city.

GEORGE R. BORDEN CLASS WILL PICNIC

At a committee meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. C. Beahm, Moody avenue, plans were completed for the July outing of the George R. Borden class of the First Methodist church, which will be held Tuesday, July 19, at Lakewood Beach, for the members and their families.

The committee for this event will be Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Beahm, Mr. and Mrs. Vernett E. Dufford, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Bassett and Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Pattison.

Amity Club Notes

A short business meeting and a social period featured the meeting of the Amity club members held Tuesday evening at the home of Ann Burgo at 486 East Washington street. Lunch was served at the close of the entertainment by the hostess, covers being laid for all associates and one guest, Mrs. Lawrence Burgo.

In two weeks, Mrs. Florence Carney will have club at her home.

Marion Falls Weds G. McKenzie.

Mrs. Francis Cunningham Falls, Garfield avenue, announces the marriage of her daughter, Marion L., to George McKenzie, Garfield avenue, both of this city. The ceremony took place on Monday, July 11 at Pittsburgh, Pa.

At Chalfonte-Haddon Hall

Registered from New Castle at the Chalfonte-Haddon Hall, Atlantic City, are Miss Mary Clark, 130 East street, Mrs. W. W. Brown of 304 East street and Miss Margaret Myers.

MANY TAKE PART IN WORK AT HOSPITAL

This morning, from 9 to 12 o'clock members and officers of the executive board of the Jameson Memorial Hospital Aid society and other women in the city, numbering approximately twenty-five, met at the Jameson hospital and completed a number of items to be used in the institution.

This was voted a most successful meeting, and it is hoped that equally as large a number of interested residents of this city will respond and assist with the work on the dates announced.

Shrine Picnic

Bethlehem Shrine 9 of Youngstown, Ohio will have its annual picnic Friday in the Pioneer Pavilion at Mill Creek park.

A sport program has been arranged for the afternoon, the basket picnic dinner will be served at noon, with the Shrine furnishing the ice cream and coffee and the evening will be spent in dancing and cards. Many persons from New Castle are planning on attending.

THE AMAZING MR. CURTIS IS SENTENCED

NEARLY everybody will agree that John Hughes Curtis deserves the sentence of one year in jail and the fine of $1000 imposed upon him for "hindering the capture of the kidnapers of the Lindbergh baby." Many will feel that it was not severe enough. But after all is said and done tens of thousands will be more or less bewildered over the whole business. What did he expect to get out of it, aside from the world-wide publicity?

It was impossible for the authorities to ignore the amazing performance of the man, particularly after he had confessed that his story was a gigantic hoax. Nor was the situation changed much when he tried to withdraw his "confession" on the ground that it was obtained under duress. A jury of his peers found him guilty; but that they were puzzled to account for his motive is to be assumed from their recommendation to mercy.

There is no doubt that he led Colonel Lindbergh and the police on a wild goose chase. It is certain that he added to the woes of an already grief-stricken parent. It is that which caused the universal feeling of indignation. His seeming inability to realize the suffering he caused only increases the mystery of the case. Should a man of this kind be punished? The jury thought so and the judge has expressed his feeling by the sentence. It will undoubtedly be upheld by public sentiment. But vast numbers of persons will continue to wonder if future developments may not make the Curtis phase of the mystery more understandable.

FACE POWDER—400 B. C.

Archaeologists are ever reading us lessons from the past. Here is Professor Shear of Princeton, who has been excavating a woman's grave at Corinth. Among other articles he found a terra cotta toilet box—in modern usage a vanity case—containing white face powder, which proved upon analysis to be precisely like that used today.

What the Greek word for it was we are not informed. That is not important. The really interesting fact is that the women of 400 B. C. were sisters over the skin to the women of today.

PERMANENT VALUES

Here is a word of wise consolation for those who need it—and many people do, nowadays. Florence E. Allen, one of the country's distinguished woman jurists, says:

"There are many elements of hope for the individual and the country today. There are some equities which do not shrink, some values which have not been swallowed up in the financial crisis. These are the intellectual, social, ethical, and spiritual values which constitute, after all, our greatest asset."

"If we were to go back to the crude system of barter so far as our commercial life was concerned, we still would not have lost these treasures. Money wealth is not the only nor real power. The real power is in the sturdiness of the human spirit that faces and overcomes all obstacles."

A GENEROUS MERCHANT

That Sloan merchant who wiped out debts amounting to $75,000 owed him by customers over a long period is attracting much attention. Some think it very remarkable that he survived in business as long as he did with such a sum upon his books, and are making the comment that he was able to continue in business only because those who paid for what they bought paid the losses caused by those who did not pay. The comment is made also that we are taking more notice of the people who do not pay what they owe than of those who do.

Before the action of this merchant can be correctly appraised it will be necessary to know more about the debts and the debtors. There are plenty of "moochers" and "deadbeats" who should be compelled to pay their debts. The merchant was doubtless actuated by good motives, and if the majority of his debtors were honest people in unfortunate circumstances who would have paid if they could, it was a very fine thing to do.

THE PARKED AUTO

Parking prohibitions are inevitable. As the nation approaches the saturation point of automobile use public sentiment probably will undergo a change, and the automobile owner will come to the realization that the parked car is a hindrance to traffic, of which he himself is a part when not parked. When the individual owner makes this admission, the battle will be won.

In the meantime, of course, parking must continue to be prohibited in certain sections by police regulations. Here and there parking places even now are springing up in which an automobile may be left, not on public property, for nominal fee. This system should be extended. And where the public land is available there should be free parking space.

Without absolute parking prohibition, conditions would be considerably improved if curb space were used only by those having a short errand to run or a few minutes business in nearby store or office. The man who makes the pavement of a business street his garage not only interfere with traffic but deprives others of parking privileges.

A MILLION TREE PLANTERS

Like most panaceas, that of nominee Roosevelt for employing a million men in reforestation and cultivation of abandoned farms sounded better from its author's lips than it reads. It will not stand scrutiny by the informed.

Secretary of Agriculture Hyde promptly scotched the Democratic candidate's scheme by providing it to be based on ignorance of reforestation facts. He need not have gone farther than to point out that the country's supply of seedling forest trees would keep a million men busy not more than two hours, but did not stop there. He cited statistics showing that the United States forest service of 6200 men, 3400 of whom are employed only half time, care for 160,000,000 acres of forest lands. At that rate a million men could care for 25,000,000,000 acres—or 12 times the land area of the nation.

How could the governor of New York have gone so far wrong in his calculations? Perhaps he doesn't know that the reforestation program of his own state, which involves the planting of a million acres within 15 years, keeps only 72 men busy on full time and gives part time employment to a few hundred.

But Mr. Roosevelt's acceptance speech was intended for the ears of voters, not farmers and foresters. Who asked Secretary Hyde to listen in anyway?

If everybody calls him "dad", he has 8432 friends and $3.65.

You Can Know Too Much
A Bottle of Mercury
An Angry Druggist

By MARSHALL MASLIN

At a very early age I learned that it is sometimes dangerous to know too much. I'll tell you how it happened.

My brother and I found a mysterious, very heavy jar under a stairway in an old house. . . . We opened it and found it filled with a thick, silvery fluid. Our father told us it was mercury, left there probably by some man who had used it in his profession. But whoever he was, it didn't belong to him any more. It was Ours. It was Treasure, just like the gold doubloons that Captain Kidd had buried on some forgotten shore.

We could do what we wanted with it. . . . And we had fun. We put coins in it and turned them bright and silvery again. We changed a gold ring to silver. We put some on a hot stove and watched it disappear. We took it to school and rolled it along the pencil groove on the desk. We traded some of it for marbles and tops and all-day suckers. And, finally, when half of mine was gone, it occurred to me that I might convert what was left into money. I might be able to sell it.

So I put my treasure in a bottle one hot day and trudged up and down a business street in our town and in and out of drug stores, asking clerks and proprietors whether they didn't want to buy some quicksilver. (I think I was nine years old.) I didn't have much success. There didn't seem to be any enormous demand for quicksilver.

But, finally, when I was about to give up one man seemed interested. He said he'd buy my bottle of quicksilver and he put it on his scales and weighed it and told me it was 16 ounces. Then he figured it out at 16 ounces to the pound and began to pay me 65 cents.

Right then I learned that there are times to talk and times to be still. . . . My father had told me that you used Troy weight for quicksilver and that it weighed Twelve ounces to the pound. So I timidly reminded the man that I should have 85 cents, instead of 65, and that made him angry. His face got red. He called me a smarty. He gave my bottle back to me and told me to get out of his store and never come back.

The deal was not even 65 cents. I was very unhappy.

Because I knew too much and talked too much. . . . And since then I've always known that there are times when it is dangerous to know too much about things. But it's done me little good. I never know just when to use that hard won wisdom and when to disregard it. . . . Perhaps you've had the same experience.

PROVING YOUR LOYALTY

You may have a few lukewarm friends but you'd like real friends. Possibly you are trying to take in too much territory in the establishment of certain friendships.

You want to be well thought of by too wide a circle and in your efforts you do not convince anyone that you are as desirable as a strong and true friend.

To establish real friendships, enemies are bound to be made. There will be occasions when you will be called upon to make decisions which will divorce you from some of these whom you wish to retain as friends.

If you are unwilling to make sacrifices for the few as against the many, desire for the good wishes of a large number of persons will be forever without the kind of friends who will stick in time of trouble.

Very likely you would be unwilling to do what you would require of those whom you wish for intimate friends.

This world continually demonstrates that you receive no more than you are willing to give in friendship and the same rule applies to organizations to which you belong.

You get out in proportion to what you put into things. The few exceptions prove the rule.

How about proving yourself loyal to a person or a cause?

SYMPATHY

I do not mind my pains and aches. I fancy I can brave them through. The burden of my own mistakes sets me to try anew.

But, oh, to see a friend in pain Seems more than I can bear. When I in strength stand by in vain And cannot help him there.

And, oh, to feel another's woe And helpless be to aid. Stings deeper than the lashing blow Which on my back is laid.

'Tis deepest torture to behold The pain a child endures, And standing there so strong and bold.

Wish the harsh pain were yours. (Copyright, 1932 Edgar A. Guest)

We wonder how those blatant alleged Republicans in the United States senate who yap about their prohibition ideas year in and year out and then line up for a Democratic candidate for president who even wanted to start a brewery right in the hall that nominated him. The financial eclipse through which we have been passing has at least developed more respect for the American. During the hectic hurrah of the boom period we developed the manners of a Western mining settlement. A 25-cent tip was an insult thrown in the teeth of a waiter; the average person making contact with the public was abrupt and, frequently, downright boorish and discourteous. All this has been changed. Today there is polite thanks for any tip for much better service, more courtesy and on the other hand, more genuine appreciation for attentive considerations. Our manners have improved. It's an ill wind that is just a blowhard.

DEAR OLD PAUL LAWRENCE CASTLE

Castle Hills, Pa. July 12th, 1932

Dear Fred:

Please accept the most hearty congratulations of Matilda and I of your 50 years service with the New Castle Daily News. You were selected in the old Standard Bearer of the News as a boy of fitness and ability and you have surely made good. One of your assets is that you have always been contented and satisfied with yourself and believed that a man that never made a mistake never made a move.

I believe that I am one of the oldest Huckleberries that had the pleasure of doing business with you, the people that I worked for, and I was poorer, and I will never forget how you helped us out and made success possible.

It was my pleasure to visit your store and when I noticed the pictures on the wall of old friends of long ago, it reminded me of the old saying, you may make new friends that come and go, but there are none so dear as the friend we knew long ago.

Fred, there are times in life when we envy others. When you received that most wonderful vote, Matilda and I was proud of you, but the disappointment for me, I ran for School Director in my district and only got one vote. Even Matilda did not vote for me.

And now Fred, as I sit in my cabin reminiscing of old times you and I have been together, I can only say your faults are few as any and your virtues more than many. Sincerely,

LAWRENCE CASTLE.

The Democrats have everything to gain and nothing to lose and the Republicans have everything to lose. So it's naturally some argument.

Constant improvement and evolution have made man superior to all the other funny birds and animals. Instead of walking around on his feet he buys a car which the installment collector takes away from him after a couple of months.

Gradually men have evolved their ill-will, and changed ordinary dandruff and toothache for B. O., halitosis, pink tooth brush, athlete's foot and some other things.

But it is time for the human race to show some real progress.

We will not be perfect until we have done a lot of changing.

As a start we propose to abolish stomachs.

Maybe you do not believe that abolishing stomachs will be an improvement. But do you realize that when stomachs are abolished there can be no more stomach aches or indigestion? Do you realize that men above forty will no longer be troubled with having their chest fall down in front to their waistline, causing a bay window and spilling their view of their feet? The only place where the chest can do any damage by dropping then will be in back, and even if you do have a large chest there, it will be more comfortable in sitting down, and not so noticeable.

Hunger will be abolished along with the stomach, for nobody can then suffer with empty stomach.

Burping or belching will also be a thing of the past when the stomach, where the belch originates, is eliminated.

There is no end to the possibilities. The movement to abolish stomachs will meet with great opposition. It is true. Were there people who said that the steam engine wouldn't work? Weren't there people who said that Georgia Crackers would? Both have been proven mistaken.

The human race will be better off without stomachs! We can get along just as well without them. Look how well we get along without brains!

Garner Influence Declared Potent In Coming Campaign

Democratic Nominee For Vice President Believed To Be Active Force In Fighting For Measures Upheld By His Party

The selection of Speaker John N. Garner of Texas as Democratic candidate for the vice presidency is followed by the usual partisan discussion of nominees for national offices. There is a widespread feeling in both parties, however, that he will be an unusual factor in the campaign because of his participation in legislative matters and his position as a leader of the party in the house of representatives, while it is generally agreed that the placing of his name on the ticket will strengthen it, especially in the west and south.

"The ticket will appeal very strongly to the middle west and west, thanks to Garner," says the ABILENE REPORTER (Ind. Dem.), which also feels that it "will pull the solid south into line again, in spite of its wetness." THE SCRANTON TIMES (Dem.) declares that the "nomination of Mr. Garner will strengthen the Democratic ticket in the west and south." "Insofar as the wet east is concerned, it should not be the cause of any weakness, for the reason that Garner, although from a dry state, voted against the prohibition amendment and more recently declared himself in favor of repeal." As to the man himself, THE TIMES states: "His selection as speaker of the house and his masterful handling of that body, especially during the early days of the session, marked him as certain of further honors by his party."

He is forceful, plain spoken, typical of the soil. His years in Washington have not spoiled him or dulled his understanding, yet he is not a radical; rather, he leans toward conservatism—is a foe of socialism and communism."

"Texas has given a great Texas to the ticket," says THE FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM (Ind. Dem.). "Like the Democratic platform his stand has been unequivocal on all subjects. Every tenet of Democracy might be the support of the man who has done the most in the last six months to educate the people into admission of Democratic ability in government." Agreeing that "his nomination will add much strength to the ticket," THE ALTOONA MIRRORE (Ind.), commenting on his qualifications as revealed in his legislative record, states: "As speaker of the house, he has functioned with marked ability. With a party majority of not more than a half dozen behind him, he has demonstrated a very unusual capacity for leadership and under different conditions he might have been nominated for the presidency. If he should be elected vice president, he will be the second man in our country's history to step from the speaker's chair to that of the vice president at the other end of the capital. The other was Schuyler Colfax of Indiana, elected with General Grant in 1868. Of one thing the country may rest assured: Roosevelt and Garner will conduct a vigorous campaign. They have a good fighting chance to win against Hoover and Curtis and they are the type of men who are ready to make the most of the opportunity."

Elections seldom hinge on the running mate. Such a man, FORD TIMES (Ind. Dem.), "but there is an advantage in having the nominee for vice president a man of popularity, experienced, with a large and well located following, and so equipped by ability that the chance of his possible ultimate arrival at the presidency itself cannot be a peril to the country. Such a man, undoubtedly, is John Nance Garner, who has clear title to the honor which he has received." THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE (Ind. Rep.) believes that he would "make a good vice president" and comments that he has a rough-and-ready way which one and the speakership have softened."

Taking a more critical attitude toward the Democratic candidate for vice president, the BUFFALO EVENING NEWS (Ind. Rep.) argues: "During his years as minority leader, he brought to a high development the political philosophy which holds that the duty of an opposition statesman is simply to be sharply critical. Under this practice, questions and keen wit may be substituted for any very strong opinion on the positive policies which government should undertake. Mr. Garner established a reputation as an ardent partisan strategist on the floor of the house who could forget all about politics as soon as a session adjourned. The qualities which he exhibited as opposition leader, however, were not equally adaptable to the responsibilities of power."

Referring to the controversy over national revenue measures as one "between the president and the Democratic nominee for vice president," THE NEW YORK SUN (Ind.) declares: "The power of his office and the support of his party in the house cannot offset the fact that he is as wrong and the president as right as a bill which originated from his own state and which got through the house with the speaker's help."

Charging "an exhibition of incapacity and pork-barrel conceptions since his elevation to the speakership," THE SPOKANE SPOKESMAN-REVIEW (Rep.) believes that the nomination came to him "for breaking the deadlock in the convention and giving the victory to Roosevelt."

THE OSHKOSH DAILY NORTHWESTERN (Rep.) advises: "Political parties do not make issues, but they face issues and meet them. They must show courage, honesty and resourcefulness and give substantial proof of the value of their political philosophy in solving the national problems. Candidates and parties will now have the opportunity to go before the electorate with their qualifications. The public should be open-minded and give careful study to the relative merits of the Republican and Democratic appeals." In a discussion of all the candidates in the national campaign the DANBURY EVENING NEWS (Ind.) states: "Hoover and Curtis and Roosevelt and Garner are fine, patriotic and able Americans, honorable and worthy. However, Americans may differ from them in political beliefs and traditions, there is no denying their character, upright-ness and sturdy Americanism."

"Our president may be of either party, his political history may be what it may be, but he must be personally of a high morality, of a clear character, worthy successor of a long line of fine, honorable gentlemen. And it is well for the country that it is so."

Man Confesses Killing Of Taxi Driver On July 3

Howard Hutton, 27, Arrested
In Newark, N. J., Confesses,
According To Police

(International News Service)

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., July 13—Hoard Hutton, 27, of Montourville, today confessed to the murder of William L. Garrison, taxicab driver, who was shot to death in his cab near here last July 3, the district attorney's office announced.

No motive for the crime was established, authorities said, although Garrison's slayer took a few dollars from his victim's person at the time of the killing.

Hutton, arrested in Newark, N. J. yesterday, at first denied knowledge of the crime, under constant grilling by District Attorney John C. Youngman of Lycoming county, he admitted ownership of the gun found buried with a blood-stained handkerchief at the bottom of the chimney in his home later, Hutton confessed to the killing, attaches of the district attorney's office said.

Americanization Society Meets

Classes Close For Summer Months And Plans Are Made For Work During The Winter

The Americanization Society met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. T. W. Phillips, Highland avenue, with Miss Butler, the welfare worker at the Neighborhood house, giving her report for the month of June.

Miss Butler reported 74 calls made in the homes; 517 food exchanges in the library, a gift of 27 books from Miss Mollie Davis, Eleanor Hempel and Mrs. Stewart. She reported the closing of the embroidery circle classes for the summer and other classes, each of them having a picnic as a closing event.

A splendid children's day program was presented with 132 present and the contest for attendance is continuing through the summer months, with an attendance of much over one hundred in attendance each Sunday. Good interest was shown in the evangelistic meetings which were held with Rev. Andy Koonce of Nebraska and Richard Owey of the People's Mission as speakers. Plans are under way for further evangelistic meetings.

Through the kindness of the Kiwanis club and Mrs. J. T. Ray eight girls were sent to camp for a week at East Brook.

Plans are under way for entertaining the members of the advisory board at the Neighborhood house, at which time there will be a program of demonstration of the work done in the classes, interspersed with music and the women of the directing board will serve refreshments.

Brazilian Rebels Claim Capture Of Government Arsenal

(International News Service)
SAO PAULO, Brazil, July 13—Brazilian rebel leaders today claimed capture of the government arsenal at Piquete, midway between Sao Paulo and Rio de Janeiro.

With the insurrection reported to be spreading through numerous southern states, general Isidoro Lopes announced he was taking command of the rebel forces "for the purpose of restoring a constitutional government in Brazil."

in a Man—

Nearly 3,000 Children In Daily Attendance At City Playgrounds

Attendance at city playgrounds this summer surpasses records of last year and according to Recreation Supervisor George Bechtol, about 3,000 children romp daily in supervised playgrounds.

The children flock to the recreation centers as early as 9 a. m. and are under the supervision of teachers until five p. m. and many of the children linger in the grounds until the shades of darkness arrive.

The biggest attendance is experienced at Gaston Park, one of the most beautiful woodlands in this section, and Carnegie playgrounds, which this summer is being operated by the city. Daily the average number of children at each place ranges from 500 to 800.

A check was obtained one day this week from George Bechtol, supervisor as follows:

Gaston park, 500 to 800 children; teachers Margaret Tucker and Clara Lindsay.

Franklin field, 400 to 500 children; teacher, Mildred Sargent.

Rose Avenue, 200 children; Helen Lyle.

Croton Avenue, 300 to 400 children; teacher, Mildred Battley.

McClary Avenue, 200 children; Pearl McClure.

Smithfield Street, 400 to 500 children; Louise Davies.

Carnegie, 500 to 800 children; teachers Catherine Fleckenstein and Walter Thorn.

Arthur McGill, 200 to 300 children; teacher, Elizabeth Glover.

The tennis courts also attract a number of young people, mostly those who are past 16 years of age.

They are located at Smithfield St., Gaston park, Carnegie, George Washington junior high school and Boyles field. The latter court will be probably opened to play this week.

The city has two attendants who see that tennis players play in their turn at two of the courts.

They are Allen Garvin at Boyles field and Ed Reat at Washington court.

There are no municipal pools although some children do swim at McClary Avenue. The city however, undertakes no responsibility and there is no life guard there.

In addition to the play periods the girls of the various playgrounds are taught how to sew and other duties which will serve them in later life. The industrial work is under the supervision of Elizabeth Mackey and at the present time they are doing considerable designing. The girls have shown great interest in this phase of the activities.

The reason for the big attendance this city is no doubt due to the erection of equipment on which the children can obtain amusement free. The equipment has all been repaired, installed and the playgrounds operate officially every day in the week except Sunday. The equipment at the various grounds is as follows:

Gaston Park—slides, swings, tennis court, baseball and basketball field. There is a shelter house also at the park and each day several outings are held there as there are picnic tables and facilities for family dinner parties. The park has been beautified and improvements are continuing.

Franklin Field—slides, swings, basketball, baseball and volleyball field. There is a temporary shelter in case of rain.

Rose Avenue—Mushball field and merry go round.

Croton Avenue—swings, see-saws, parallel bars, volleyball, basketball and baseball fields.

McClary Avenue—mushball field, see-saws, horse-shoe court. There is a small shelter house there in case of inclement weather.

Smithfield Street—wading pool, tennis court, swings, slides, see-saws and horse-shoe court. The wading pool has become very popular. It is several feet deep in the center.

Carnegie—tennis court, slides, volleyball, baseball and basketball fields, slides, lawn swings and a shelter. The equipment is the property of the Carnegie Steel Company.

Arthur McGill—slides, see-saws, baseball and mushball grounds and a merry-go-round situated in a pleasant shady grove.

The playground system here has developed steadily since the days when D. O. Davies helped to give it impetus. At present the grounds are under the jurisdiction of Councilman Louis Genkinger who has worked hard to help the playground situation.

However, there is a board which directs its affairs and this body is composed of W. J. Offutt, Attorney Roy Hazen, Councilman Stanley Treser, A. C. Hyde and Councilman Louis Genkinger. George Bechtol is in charge of the teachers and holds the title of recreation director.

Guinea Hens Kill This Chicken Hawk

Experiment Works Out To Benefit Of Guinea Hens, Not Hawk

Chicken hawks may be all right as fighters with everything in their favor but when Adolf Lang put a chicken hawk in his coop where he had two guinea hens concerned the said chicken hawk lasted less than 24 hours. In fact the hawk was dead within 12 hours, having been killed by the guinea hens.

Some time ago he got hold of a chicken hawk and yesterday for an experiment confined it in a coop in the rear of his residence.

When the chicken hawk was noticed by the guinea hens they fled to the far end of the coop while the chicken hawk strut his stuff like a champion.

However, the guinea hens must have "ganged" the chicken hawk during the night for it was found dead this morning and the two guinea hens were strolling around in a nonchalant attitude.

Italian American Young Ladies Will Form Class This Evening

Cavalier Giurati, Italian consul at Pittsburgh, will be the guest of honor this evening at 7:30 o'clock at a meeting being held in King Humbert First Hall on Division street, for the purpose of forming a class of young Italian American women for instruction in the Italian language. One hundred of these young ladies have already been registered. Mrs. Clara Tranquillo is taking the names. Later on there will be classes formed for young men and children.

Representatives of the various Italian American clubs will be present. The books are being furnished by the Italian government and the purpose is not to detract in any way from the American citizenship of people of Italian ancestry, but rather to teach them to read and speak a little of their native tongue and also have two languages at their command. Americans desirous of learning the language will also be welcome. Among the societies especially active in furthering this move are Humbert First, Sons of Italy and La Rinascente.

The school sessions will get under way next week in St. Vitus church, with Rev. Fr. N. DeMita, pastor of the church, as instructor for the present. The classes will meet on Monday and Friday evenings unless otherwise stated. The church will be the headquarters for the next few months at least.

FEWER FISHERS IN MERCER COUNTY

MERCER, Pa., July 13.—Fishing licenses sold this year total but 1,500. The 1931 sales were over 4,000. The big sale of the year is prefacing July 4th. The number bought at this time totaled but a few hundred the reports of Treasurer George Lawrence show. The official predicts that the 1932 sale will be the smallest total on record.

Guinea Hens Kill This Chicken Hawk

Experiment Works Out To Benefit Of Guinea Hens, Not Hawk

Chicken hawks may be all right as fighters with everything in their favor but when Adolf Lang put a chicken hawk in his coop where he had two guinea hens concerned the said chicken hawk lasted less than 24 hours. In fact the hawk was dead within 12 hours, having been killed by the guinea hens.

chicken hawk and yesterday for an experiment confined it in a coop in the rear of his residence.

When the chicken hawk was noticed by the guinea hens they fled to the far end of the coop while the chicken hawk strut his stuff like a champion.

However, the guinea hens must have "ganged" the chicken hawk during the night for it was found dead this morning and the two guinea hens were strolling around in a nonchalant attitude.

Italian Consul Will Inaugurate Italian Classes

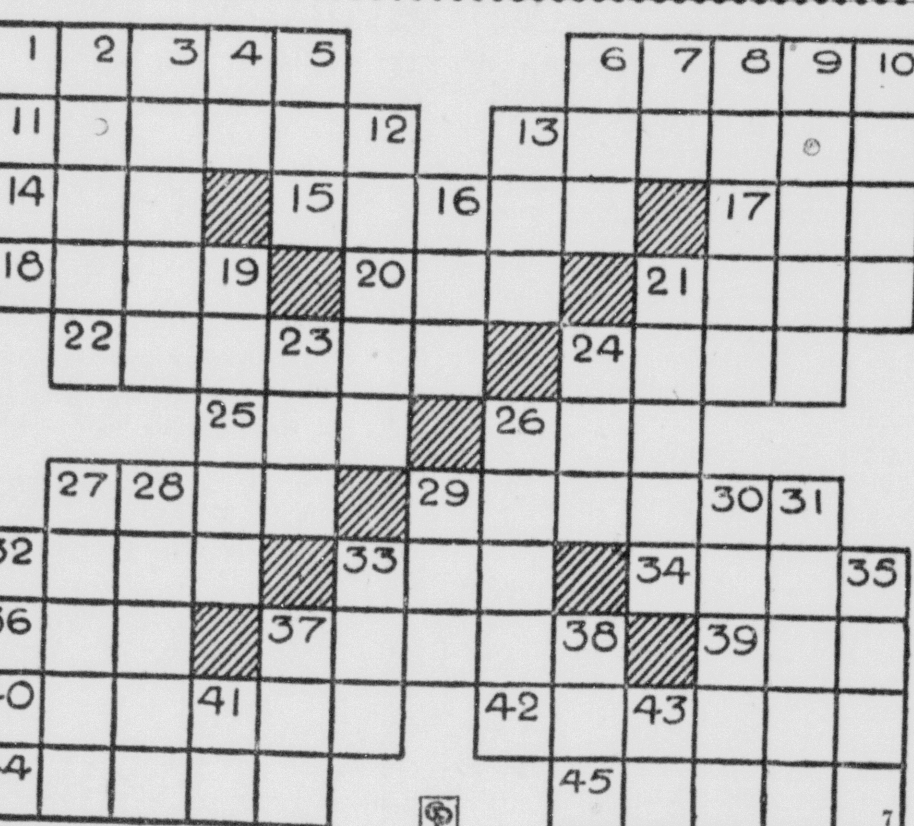

Italian American Young Ladies Will Form Class This Evening

Cavalier Giurati, Italian consul at Pittsburgh, will be the guest of honor this evening at 7:30 o'clock at a meeting being held in King Humbert First Hall on Division street, for the purpose of forming a class of young Italian American women for instruction in the Italian language. One hundred of these young ladies have already been registered. Mrs. Clara Tranquillo is taking the names. Later on there will be classes formed for young men and children.

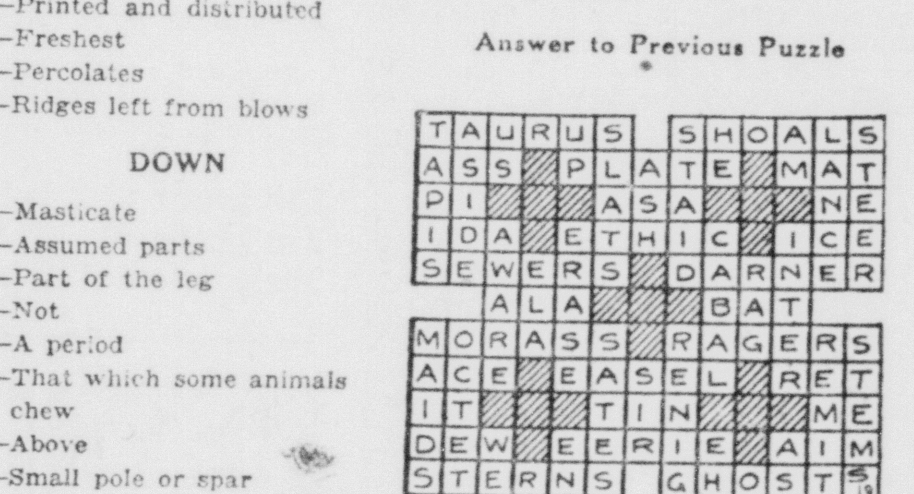

Representatives of the various Italian American clubs will be present. The books are being furnished by the Italian government and the purpose is not to detract in any way from the American citizenship of people of Italian ancestry, but rather to teach them to read and speak a little of their native tongue and also have two languages at their command. Americans desirous of learning the language will also be welcome. Among the societies especially active in furthering this move are Humbert First, Sons of Italy and La Rinascente.

The school sessions will get under way next week in St. Vitus church, with Rev. Fr. N. DeMita, pastor of the church, as instructor for the present. The classes will meet on Monday and Friday evenings unless otherwise stated. The church will be the headquarters for the next few months at least.

FEWER FISHERS IN MERCER COUNTY

MERCER, Pa., July 13.—Fishing licenses sold this year total but 1,500. The 1931 sales were over 4,000. The big sale of the year is prefacing July 4th. The number bought at this time totaled but a few hundred the reports of Treasurer George Lawrence show. The official predicts that the 1932 sale will be the smallest total on record.

Butler Sends Suggestion To President Hoover

B. F. Butler, of North Jefferson street, this city, has written a letter to President Herbert Hoover, expressing his idea of a plan that would aid in bringing an end to the national depression. The letter gives expression to his idea as shown in the following copy of the communication to the president:

New Castle, Pa., July 12, '32. Hon. Herbert Hoover, president, Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

We are all deeply interested in the present menacing economic condition. As a private citizen it is a duty to give one's views to our nation's leaders, that these opinions may be examined in the possibly elusive hope that that some helpful idea may be suggested. Our government has done some splendid things in a financial way—but the point of contact between the appropriations and the worker—the man on the street—has not as yet been reached. My view of the method of getting the necessary contact is this:

The quickest way—the better way—the only way to break this depression is to get money into the hands of the workers, who will spend it—who must spend it—to buy the things so badly needed, which includes every article the ordinary family requires.

To get the money distributed in this manner, the essential thing will be to have some plants of all kinds of manufacture agree to make up staple or semi-staple goods to a certain per cent of their ordinary production—say 25 up to 35 or 40%—whatever might be agreed upon—regardless of present demand. Most of our large industries have sufficient surplus or at least borrowing capacity to do this. Demand in certain lines will begin with the first pay received by employees.

There is an enormous and growing need in absolute household necessities which will begin to be supplied with the first pay after the inauguration of this idea.

The quicker its introduction the better. The longer the mills and manufacturing are silent, the greater the depression. The longer the workers are idle, the less able they are to buy, and they have no hope of obtaining money until they earn it in their different lines of occupation.

or so.Time—even months—travel fast and no one knows it better than S. G. Ligo, superintendent of the school district's buildings, grounds and equipment, directing the energetic force of workmen which will place classrooms, gymnasiums, lobbies, and other school units in shape for the return of over 11,000 students in September.Times Pare Activity Curtailed to a certain degree by the times, the summer repair schedule now being followed keeps a fair-sized group of men engaged in a half a dozen or more types of school activity.While Ligo's men are patching steam pipes, beautifying exteriors of older buildings and keeping down the fast-growing grass at the more expensive lawns, Dr. C. C. Green's own office staff is turning out min-iograph school forms for use in the operation of the system next year.Where necessary office blanks were heretofore printed on presses in the Ben Franklin and George Washington school print shops, the work is now being done by the improved mimeograph machinery. A careful check on the cost of the work is being taken.Employ Regular Staff
The machines, with regular office girls operating them, have turned out 30,000 daily absence report blanks, 10,000 office absence blanks, 10,000 registration blanks, 10,000 li-brary blanks, 2,000 library overdue reports, and 2,500 blanks on which new students will express their study course choices at Ben Franklin or George Washington next fall.
The mimeographing of forms, it was said, has about reached the half-way mark. Later the blanks are to be delivered to their respective departments.As to Ligo's own department the work rushed to completion so far has been extensive.

Clean, Paint Schools

Regular employees have washed the walls and ceilings at the George Washington, Terrace avenue, Croton, Oak street and Pollock buildings, and at the Washington, Franklin and Senior buildings the floors have been cleaned and waxed as well.At Thaddeus Stevens a 34-year-old boiler plant has been replaced by a modern system.The Lincoln and Garfield building has been newly painted on the outside, the windows newly weatherstripped and a host of minor improvements made.Half of the classroom seats at Ben Franklin have been freshly varnished, and at every building where the case has arisen, repairs have been made to weakened steam and water lines. Most of the latter are but routine improvements carried on during the winter as well as in the fall, expressly to economize on the amount of fuel which buildings require.Other activities of the school system today were shaping operating plans along so that when early September comes no last-minute rush of anything will interrupt the regular opening procedure.Y Board Opposes

Tearing Up Old Rails On South Side Recalls Days Of Big Excursions

Removal of the street car tracks on East Long avenue and Hamilton street, now in progress, recall the fact that it has not been so very long ago, since these tracks were laid as a part of the Clifton Flat route to Cascade Park. This route was built with the idea of cutting down transportation costs.

The Clifton Flat route was constructed on a practically level roadbed, with two lines of track. In order to accomplish this the traction company had to cut through a large hill, and a fill of about a quarter of a mile had to be made north of the cut. At the time the hill was cut away it was considered quite an engineering feat for an electric railway to undertake.

The cut was about 75 feet deep, and had to be quite wide at the top in order to prevent landslides on the tracks. When the new route was first opened for travel Cascade Park was just coming into prominence as a recreation resort. With the equipment for handling the crowds the park management advertised extensively, and soon crowds were coming here from all over the country.

The park line was equipped with open cars and trailers. On days when the big excursions arrived, the cars were parked on South Croton avenue. Often the line of cars would reach from East Washington street to South Mill street. When trains would pull up on the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie tracks at the old Union station, there would be a great rush to get on the cars. Notwithstanding the long row, it frequently happened that the crowd was so large that it could not be accommodated, until the first cars out had made the round trip.

Visitors always liked the ride to the park over the Clifton Flat route. There was no traffic to annoy after the cars had turned down Hamilton street, and the scenery along the route was worth seeing. The deep cut was one of the points of interest that always seemed to catch the fancy.

For several years after what came to be known as the "park line" was built, excursions kept pouring into New Castle. They enlivened the city and added not a little to its revenue. But gradually the crowds began to wane until in recent years they have dwindled to a fraction of their former proportions.

This is not because the beauties and attractions of Cascade Park have deteriorated, but it is to be attributed rather to the change in the desires and habits of the people. It is not so many years ago since Sunday schools, lodges and organizations of all kind, did not appear to be happy unless they could assemble somewhere for a big outing.

Today there are still outings, but the number of them is nothing like what it used to be. What may be said of Cascade Park applies to all parks, so far as excursions are concerned.

The principal reason for this is probably seen in the advent of the automobile. Before it came into general use, people could not get anywhere as a body, without arranging railway excursions. Today they go in autos. It has been the advent of the autos that has made it necessary to abandon the Clifton Flat route to the park. Traffic dwindled to a point where it did not pay to operate the cars.

Cascade Park is still visited by thousands every season, but the majority don't come on excursion trains. They come in their own autos and busses and leave when they get ready. It is pretty hard to realize that in a few short years the Cascade Park line has outlived its usefulness, but we are living in an age of ever changing conditions.

SCIENTISTS OF 2 UNIVERSITIES PROVE OLD GOLD COOLEST SMOKE

LABORATORY CHECK PLACES O. G. FIRST, IN COOL THROAT-EASE

Decisive Results in Favor of O. G. Obtained by Scientists From Specimens of Four Leading Brands Purchased in 20 Different Parts of the Country

Independent tests conducted by scientists of two leading Eastern Universities corroborated the findings of the New York Testing Laboratories. The educators verified conclusively that Old Golds are the coolest of the four leading cigarette brands; indicating the use of finer quality tobaccos, the selection of milder and choicer leaf and the absence of heat-generating flavorings.

Purchasing their cigarettes through certified accountants in 20 different sections of the country with widely varying climatic conditions, the scientists said they were able to establish beyond all doubt that Old Golds' coolness was not altered by climatic extremes.

"There was no doubting the accuracy of the Oxygen Bomb Calorimeter—it is one of the most reliable methods for measuring heat-content known to Science," said one of the educators, "so we employed the same type of instrument."

"And when test after test showed Old Golds consistently cooler than the three other brands, and the Fahrenheit temperature of the smoke definitely cooler, there was no alternative but to decide for Old Golds," he insisted.

Inasmuch as coolness in a cigarette requires finer and purer tobaccos and absence of artificial flavoring, this scientific verdict proves Old Gold a cigarette of choicest tobacco quality—pure tobacco without added flavorings.

Selections from each lot of cigarettes bought for these tests have been sealed in airtight containers, labeled to show in which sections of the country they were purchased.

To any technical or scientific authority a signed report of the complete findings of these two scientists will be sent on request. P. Lorillard Company, Inc., 119 West 40th St., New York City.

who saw Old Gold win Scientific Test

Sam Taub is one of the leading newspaper authorities on the boxing game. Both his column, "In a Ring-side Seat," and his radio broadcasts of leading fights are the last word to boxing enthusiasts.

Karl K. Kitchen's two columns, "Mr. Manhattan," which deals with New York personalities, and "Karl K. Kitchen Presents," appear in over 60 papers, and have a wide and loyal following.

Walter Trumbull's sparkling syndicated sports features, "The Listening Post" and "The Wearing of the Green" are followed eagerly by readers all over the country.

THE EVIDENCE OF SCIENCE

"This is to certify that in 75 repeated cool tests made of the 4 leading cigarette brands . . . measuring the heat content of each cigarette in B.T.U.s. with the Oxygen Bomb Calorimeter, it was shown that:

Old Gold averages 112 B.T.U.s. Cooler than Brand X
Old Gold averages 155 B.T.U.s. Cooler than Brand Y
Old Gold averages 156 B.T.U.s. Cooler than Brand Z

"To further verify Old Gold's coolness, the temperature (Fahrenheit) of the smoke of each cigarette brand was checked and Old Gold's smoke was found to be definitely cooler than the smoke of the other three brands."

START BUILDING TRESTLES FOR PERRY HIGHWAY FILL

(Special To The News)

HARRISBURG, July 13.—Work on the last and only unimproved gap on the Perry Highway, U. S. Route 19, a 1600-foot link over the Conneaut Swamp between Meadville and Sheakleyville, has been started. Secretary of Highways Sam S. Lewis has announced.

These operations climax an engineering problem under study by State Highway and consulting engineers for more than a year. Efforts to build a road by placing a "fill" on this section were temporarily abandoned by the Department of Highways last year when it was discovered that the seemingly bottomless swamp absorbed all material placed for a road bed. Three widely known engineering experts were asked to study the formation and make recommendations.

Reports from the consulting engineers agreed that the location for the roadway through the swamp area chosen by the Pennsylvania Highway engineers was the only practicable course, and asked that test holes be made to determine the character of the deposits and depth to foundations. This was done for several studies made. Solid foundations were located at depths ranging from 80 to 115 feet. The black muck that forms the swamp was attributed to rank vegetation, which flourished in the region, taking root in the silt deposits on an old lake bottom made by the same glacial action that formed Conneaut Lake, nearby.

From the information gained a practical plan for proceeding was agreed upon, and a contract for the work let. It calls for connecting a plate girder bridge, now in place in the center of the swamp, with an existing concrete surface on the highway at either end of the 1600-foot gap.

Approaches to the bridge will be built on trestles, an 83-foot section on the north side, a 124-foot section on the south. From these to the existing concrete surface on either side, a flexible type road will be constructed consisting of wooden planks on piling, sunk to a natural foundation and securely further anchored by placing 50,000 yards of new "fill." This permits a flexibility for settling that would break up or crack a more rigid type surface.

Efforts will be made to complete the work in about two months.

Sealer Makes Check On Berries Sold Here

Stores Are Warned To See To It That Customers Get Weight Required By Law

A. Reid English, sealer of weights and measures, is very actively engaged at the present time in enforcing the law which requires certain weight in berries to be in quart baskets offered for retail sale.

The stores that handle berries have been visited, their berries inspected, and warning issued to them to be sure that the weight in raspberries, cherries, gooseberries and currants required under the law are contained in each quart container offered for sale.

The merchants have also been advised to be sure that producers or wholesalers of the berries offering them for sale to them, give them the full weight required. The sealer hopes that those wholesaling the berries of various kinds will co-operate and assist in complying with the law.

Weights of berries in quart containers required under the law are as follows: Raspberries of all kinds—one and one-half pounds net weight of berries; gooseberries, one and one-quarter pounds; currants—one and one-quarter pounds; cherries, with stems—one and three-quarter pounds; cherries, without stems—two pounds.

MAKE TROOP F PROMOTIONS AT MT. GREटना

New Non-Coms Named In Troop

Additional Appointments Of Non-Commissioned Officers Announced

Troop Has Settled Down To Routine Of Camp Duties
At Mt. Gretna

By FORREST L. FLORIDA

Troop Clerk
COLEBROOK, Pa., July 13—Troop F, 103rd Cavalry has settled down to a strenuous routine of camp duties, after setting up camp and making other initial preparations, and the members of the Troop have entered into the schedule of camp activities with enthusiasm.

Shortly after arriving in camp additional appointments of non-commissioned officers were announced and approved by the Adjutant General's Department, making the troop's non-commissioned personnel quota complete. Changes had previously been announced prior to the departure for camp.

Changes Announced

The following changes have been announced:

Corporal Marvin H. Spiker has been appointed Sergeant.

Pvt. Irl Harry St. John appointed Corporal.

Pvt. Irl Ernest J. McNicholas appointed Corporal effective July 12.

First Sergeants George R. Pollock; Sergeants, Donald E. Florida, Homer A. Measel, Edwin W. Palmer, Thomas J. St. John, Lee N. Stewart, Marvin H. Spiker; Corporals, Forrest L. Florida, William J. Hemming, Walter L. Smith, Ernest J. McNicholas, Harry St. John, Bertram C. Rick.

The Troop got into Colebrook at 7 o'clock Saturday morning arriving two hours ahead of the schedule mapped out, which nearly upset plans. At 6:30 the men were informed they still had two hours before arrival at Colebrook, so no haste was made in giving the men their breakfast. About ten minutes later word was received that the troop would arrive in thirty minutes and the fur started to fly. The men were fed, the coaches cleaned, and the troop got ready to detrain which was accomplished right on the dot.

Under Colonel's Scrutiny

This year for the first time the men were given two meals enroute to camp, a late lunch after leaving New Castle and breakfast just before arriving at Colebrook. This was accomplished through the efforts of the Troop's Civilian Sponsoring Committee who secured the materials for the meals from other than restaurants as has been the practice in the past, and the volunteering of Mess Sgt. Donald E. Florida and Cooks Levensky and Foster in making up the sandwiches, etc., thus effecting a large saving in the price of the meals per man.

Our troop street is in direct line from Colonel Colahan's tent and under his direct vision so we will certainly have to watch our steps this year and work harder than ever in order to meet the approval of our superior officers, and from all indications Troop F will encounter plenty of competition from all angles.

The troop arrived in camp with sixty-five enlisted men, full peace time strength, leaving Corporal Charles D. Gibson, who has been furloughed until July 11th when he will be honorably discharged and Pvt. Richard L. Stewart who is being transferred to the National Guard Reserve due to business interference, making the troop present at camp with one of the highest percentages of attendance attained for several years.

Due to the entire day being taken up with setting up camp and a dozen and ten details assigned to every man, personals are hard to write up as your correspondent hasn't had time to find any. Except that every man arrived safely and the "Rookies" are receiving the usual chaperoning (?). All the boys are in good health and as one "Rookie" said this evening, "It ain't as bad as it was pictured."

Legion Of Honor Plans Many Events

Will Hold Picnic And Golf Tournament In Near Future
As Summer Activities

With a large number of the members in attendance, the Legion of Honor of the New Castle Consistory met in special session in their rooms in the Cathedral last evening, when a number of events were planned for the near future.

An ice cream festival will be staged on next Monday evening, a golf match on Monday evening, July 25, and their annual picnic on August 3. C. C. Sweeney and Charles E. Allen were named captains for the golf match which will be played at Castle Hills, and all members of the Legion of Honor who wish to play are asked to notify either of the two captains prior to the date of the match. It is probable that other matches will be played during the course of the summer.

The picnic will be held at Castle Beach and committees have been named to make the arrangements for the event. It is planned to carry out a program of athletic events during the early part of the evening with a dance to follow.

New Wilmington

YOUNG PEOPLE'S COUNCIL.
The quarterly meeting of the various Young People's societies of the different churches in the county held its meeting at the Methodist church here on Monday night. A short business meeting was held, and a short talk delivered by Rev. John Orr, professor of Bible at Westminster college. Nearly a hundred young people were present at the rally. The usual custom of serving refreshments was discontinued at the meeting.

YOUTH IS KILLED.

Word has been received here of the tragic death of one of our former local boys Sammy Gibson who lived with his grandmother on New Castle street several years ago. Sammy has been in the auto racing games for some time and Sunday while racing in Akron, Ohio, his car left the track at a sharp curve, leapt through the fence, overturned, and instantly burst into flames. By the time help had arrived the lad was dead from the flames.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN MEET.

The local members of the Fire Company met at their regular meeting in the fire house on Monday night, declared bills paid, and attended to all regular business.

SWIMMING ASS'N. MEETS.

The board of directors of the swimming pool met at the office of the Campbell Lumber Company on Monday evening and transacted the regular business, and along with that reduced the prices for swimming in the new pool for outside guests. The prices are now fifteen cents for a single swim, seventy-five cents for a week's pass, one dollar and a half for monthly privileges, and two dollars for the balance of the season. Every day now the pool is filled nearly to capacity and has proved to be a healthful recreation not only for the younger set but also for the adults.

Anniversary Opens At St. Paul's Church

Local Church Begins Tenth Anniversary Celebration With Large Crowd
Tuesday

A large crowd assembled in St. Paul's Baptist church Tuesday evening for the opening program of the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the founding of the church.

The young people had charge of the opening program and Rev. C. D. Henderson of the Union Baptist church gave a splendid sermon and congratulated the church upon the progress they have made. P. Wesson acted as master of ceremonies and the St. Paul's choir had the musical part of the service. This evening the Sunday school will be in charge of the service and Rev. C. L. Pitts, pastor of the Church of God in Christ, will be the speaker and the choir from his church will give the musical numbers. Mrs. S. J. Jackson will act as master of ceremonies.

Rev. S. J. Jackson, pastor of the church, has arranged to have the ministers of other churches speak each evening and their choirs to sing. The celebration will continue each evening until Sunday.

The sheriff in charge of the House of Correction at New Bedford, Mass., says judges still sentence prisoners to his institution "at hard labor." All of the jail industries were closed some time ago, he says, so there is no labor. But then, a workless workhouse is in keeping with the times.—New London Day.

D. U. V. Tent

Entertains Guests

Splendid Program Is Given For Entertainment Of Sharon Guests; Officers Presented

The Eliza Winans McBride Tent 20 of the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War held a regular meeting in the City Hall Tuesday evening, with some distinguished guests present from the city and from Sharon.

Mrs. Jessie Crooks, this city, past department president; Mrs. Pearl Cook, this city, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Esther Pritchard, Sharon, department press correspondent; Mrs. Mary Louise Huck, Sharon, department musician; Mrs. Mary Moon, president of the Madam Gilbert Tent 23 of Sharon, and fifteen members of the Sharon tent were escorted into the room by the color bearers, and three sons of Union Veterans were obligated.

Plans were made for a district picnic of the Sons and Daughters of Union Veterans of Sharon and New Castle at Lakewood on August 11 and Mrs. Lucy Pettit, president, appointed Meadames Boston, Patterson, McKissick, and Fox on the committee. A splendid program followed business, with Mrs. Pearl Cook as chairman, and the opening number was a selection by the Sons of Veterans band; this was followed by a decidedly humorous playlet, "The Household of Mr. and Mrs. Scrampon," with Mrs. Pearl Cook, Herman Gilbert, Ray Gilbert, Walter Cross and George Partington taking part. Another sketch "Street Scene of New Castle" provoked much laughter; Mrs. Esther Pritchard of Sharon sang a number and "The Four Horsemen" pleased with popular songs and a comedy mind reading act. Mrs. Pearl Cook had a vocal selection and a comedy sketch and clog dance was given by Huey Hannon.

The visiting members were introduced, after which Mrs. Mary McBride Beisel, for whose mother the local tent was named, spoke briefly, and the program closed with the flag salute.

Mrs. Jessie Crooks, past department president, was presented with a lovely gift from her special aides, who served during her term in office, and Mrs. Crooks and Mrs. Pearl Cook were given a shower of handkerchiefs by the degree team, Mrs. Emma McKissick making the presentation speech.

Following the program lunch was served by the committee: Miss Anna

Patterson, Mrs. Maude Fisher, Mrs. Emma McKissick, Mrs. Margaret Hammond, Mrs. Lydia Patterson and Mrs. Lucy Pettit, after which dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

Daughters were present from the Madam Gilbert Tent 23 and Mary Core Tent 19 of Sharon.

Camp Phillips Boys On Overnight Hike; Camp's Units Elect

Frank Elverson And Ed McCreary Stage Trip Alone;
More Camp News

(Special To The News)
CAMP JOHN M. PHILLIPS, July 13.—Two boys were missing when the roll was called at breakfast on Tuesday morning. No one was worried however as Frank Elverson, leader of the Flying Eagle patrol, and Ed McCreary, leader of the Sioux patrol, were known to be away from camp on an overnight camping expedition.

Ed and Frank left shortly after the Monday afternoon swim and with grub enough for supper and breakfast, hiked several miles up the Slippery Rock where they pitched their camp for the night. Camp Director LeRoy Norton drove to a point near the site of their choice after tape and was pleased to see that the scouts had fulfilled the obligations of real scouts in securing permission from the owner to use the ground and careful preparation of the site for their stay. Both boys reported an enjoyable time when they returned to camp in time for the morning swim.

There are six patrol units in camp at the present time and in addition to those named above the Iroquois have elected Tom Harris, leader; the Co-Coos, patrol leader, Joe Wilson; The Blue Rabbit patrol leader is Lawrence Bennett and Bill Shira is leader of the Wolf patrol.

Fishing Reports Gloomy
Frank Robertson, Bob Penman, Cliff Mathis and a few other members of the Isaac Walton league have been trying their skill with the rod, fly, plug and nightcrawler. The big ones are still at large. Robertson thinks the fish are away on summer vacation trips and suggests sending a message "Come home, all is forgiven."

Two staff members Gordon Welsh and Al Stump secured permission from the camp director to journey to town tonight. Something was said about Red Headed women. Is there a show in town by that name? If not, its one on the directors. Welsh should be writing this article. Members of the various patrols formed teams tonight and staged an exciting game of muskball. The Pirates won from the Yankees to the tune of 16 to 11. Members of the winning team were J. Mathias, Travers, Marquis, C. Mathis, Wilson, Means, Loyd, Smith and Harris. Campfire this evening to be in charge of Sandy Howard and the sounds of merriment reaching this office are a sure sign of a happy time.

Family Wins Home, Furniture Sought

Seventh Ward Dwelling Shelter
For Destitute; More Needy Calls

The City Rescue Mission and The News had won a response today for their appeal in behalf of a destitute family of five which this week would have been left utterly homeless—and the family's thanks were hearty.

Alderman H. G. Coates offered a Seventh ward home to the needy family. In return for the shelter the husband, wife and children will paper it for the owner.

But one problem remained. The Mission said, and that is the furniture angle. Old stoves, beds and rugs are welcomed from anyone, and donations will be collected by truck from any home that contributes aid.

The fortunate family was to have been evicted from their present dwelling this week.

B. J. Watkins, the mission's superintendent, announced that additional urgent calls for furniture and stoves had been received from a dozen needy families. He asked for an immediate response.

Police Hold Seven Gypsies In Probe Of Fortune Telling

Following an unsuccessful attempt to relieve a West North street man of a twenty dollar bill through the usual fortune telling method, a group of gypsies, one man, four women and two children, are being held at the city jail for investigation by the police authorities.

The attempt to take a twenty dollar bill from the West North street man by one of the women occurred about noon. The woman had secured the bill while pretending to tell his fortune but the man caught her in the act and forced the return of his bill.

He then notified the police and the police started in pursuit, finally catching up with the group at South Jefferson street and Division streets. Here they found one of the women seeking to tell fortunes.

The policewoman was a member of the group of officers and entered the store. The gypsy women immediately started telling the fortune of the police woman, not knowing who she was and the result was that the whole group was taken in to custody, while the police seek to determine whether there was any person, from whom they procured money.

Maybe Presidents like to fish just to get relief from what they usually catch.

GUN THAT KILLED YOUNG REYNOLDS

Here is the gun, shown with one discharged bullet, which apparently figured in the shooting of Smith Reynolds, young heir to tobacco millions, first reported as a suicide, at the Reynolds estate in Winston-Salem, N. C. Secret testimony at the inquest revealed that the revolver was not found on the sleeping porch where Reynolds was shot until detectives had left the room and returned, when they discovered it lying in plain sight. Inset is Sheriff J. F. Scott of Forsyth county, who has been conducting the investigation.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND ANNOUNCE NEW ENTENTE

By ARNO DORCH-FLEUROT
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

PARIS, July 13.—Premier Edouard Herriot announced in the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon that a new entente cordiale had been concluded with England.

The agreement or "alliance" as it was termed in some quarters, "is an accord of confidence," Herriot told the chamber.

"It creates a complete solidarity between France and England in solving the financial and economic problems of Europe," he added.

Herriot's statement was made to members of the chamber's finance committee who gathered in the chamber.

The agreement, he said, was "complimentary to the gentlemen's agreement made at Lausanne" and its purpose was to give France and Great Britain leadership in collaboration for the reconstruction of Europe.

The foreign office announced that the text of the pact would be made public tonight.

(International News Service)

LONDON, July 13.—France and Great Britain have concluded a new entente.

Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, made the announcement in the house of commons this afternoon at the same time that Edouard Herriot, French prime minister, was disclosing the fact to a committee of the chamber of deputies in Paris.

Halt Tuberculosis In Spite of Times Says Club Speaker

Kiwanians Hear Spread Stops; Public's Interest Greater Now

Tuberculosis, despite the ill effect of the depression, has shown no increase as yet and every guard is being taken against the spread of cases, New Castle Kiwanians were told today by Dr. S. O. Pruitt, Philadelphia, medical secretary of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society.

Dr. Pruitt's address marked the club's noon meeting in The Castle-ton. Attorney Frank A. Hover introduced him.

"We realize today the conditions prevailing during this depression," said Dr. Pruitt during the course of his speech, "but we cannot begin to conceive the immeasurably worse conditions that would now exist were it not for the somewhat obscure discovery of what produces tuberculosis."

The doctor reported that more and more the public is becoming interested in its control, and declared that research work in that regard is far greater now than it has ever been.

"The outlook for the prevention of tuberculosis cases is hopeful," the Philadelphiaian said in conclusion. "It is with the general support of every Pennsylvania community such as yours that we can proceed toward the ultimate goal of our work."

Plans were made by the Kiwanians for a visit to Butler next Monday, when Kiwanians of the district will meet in a golf competition at a course there. A social affair will follow.

British Bandits Are Punished By Lashes With 'Cat'

Has Salutory Effect In Cutting Down Crime

(International News Service)
LONDON, July 13.—American gangsters may consider themselves fortunate when they contemplate the penalty meted out to English offenders.

A motor-bandit who attacked a cashier and robbed him of his money bags was given 15 strokes of the "cat," and 20 months' hard labor.

The "cat" is not a pleasant invention. It is a time-honored one, however, surviving since the medieval ages. It consists of a number of leather thongs, attached to a wooden handle, and tipped at the end of each thong with lead knobs.

The strokes are generously applied, not all at once, because the offender might forget when his term is ended. But half the sentence is carried out when he enters gaol, and the rest when he leaves.

Robbery with violence is one of the most abhorred of the common crimes in England, and one of the few which results in a sentence of the "cat."

Named for Nominee

Even the stork is apparently helping to boost the Democratic stock in the coming elections. Right on July 4, he dropped in on Mrs. Clayton Stafford at the Ellis Hospital, Schenectady, N. Y., and left this bouncing boy. The baby was promptly named Franklin Roosevelt Stafford in honor of the Democratic Presidential standard-bearer.

DIVORCE COURT TO BE HELD ON JULY 25

July 25th was fixed as the date for holding divorce court in an order issued by Judge R. L. Hildebrand this morning. The last day for filing applications will be on July 15th. Indications are that the list will be small, according to Prothonotary R. M. Campbell.

Robertson On Spot In Coming Olympic Games

Head Coach Of American Olympic Team Can Declare Any Man As Eligible

EASTMAN-CARR RACE IS CITED

By FRANK G. MENKE
International News Service Sports Editor

PALO ALTO, Cal., July 13.—Lawson Robertson, chief coach of the American Olympic squad, is very decidedly "on the spot" as the result of the Ben Eastman-Bill Carr 440 yard race on July 2nd.

Robertson's position makes it possible for him to declare a man eligible for the Olympic team without his competing in the finals, provided that such man is an absolute standout in his particular event. Such decisions on Robertson's part, however, must have the sanction of the committee.

Carr Beats Eastman

When Robertson arrived in San Francisco for the intercollegiate 4-A meet on July 1 and 2, he told Eastman, who is a star at either 440 and 880 yards that it would not be necessary for him to run in both events and that he would automatically qualify him for the 440 provided Eastman ran in the 880. Eastman seemed delighted over this because it meant that he would not have to run in both races on both days.

However, Dink Templeton, track and field boss at Stanford where Eastman acquires his schooling, was anxious that his protégé should win both the 440 and 880 intercollegiate honors. Dink felt that Ben was an absolute certainty to run away from all and sundry.

Eastman won the 880 but was defeated by Carr in the 440. Carr is a University of Pennsylvania student, where Robertson is track and field coach, and, thus, is Robertson's own pupil.

Everybody Surprised

When Carr defeated Eastman everybody was surprised—except Robertson. Despite all the acclaim for Eastman out here, Robertson thought he had a faster 440 man in Carr—and proved it. When he offered to appoint Eastman to the 440 squad in the Olympic finals it was a gesture of sportsmanship because he felt that Eastman could not win both races on the same day, if he had to take on Carr on the 440, and did not want to force Eastman into both events.

Since Carr defeated Eastman—a result which many folks on the coast never felt happened, because it was "impossible"—Templeton has been asking Robertson qualify Eastman automatically in the 800 meter race here on Friday and Saturday and require him to run only in the 400 meters.

Templeton wants to shoot Eastman right back at Carr and hopes that Ben can gain revenge.

French Olympic Team Arrives

NEW YORK, July 13.—Excited about the Olympics and their chance to see America, the French Olympic delegation of 82 today toured New York. They arrived here yesterday and will depart Friday for the Olympic games at Los Angeles, going on a circuitous route that will take in points of interest from here to California.

Mr. Yvonne Godard, the tri-color champion swimmer, was the only female representative among the fifty-nine actual Olympic team members. Others accompanied the squad as rosters. It was a man's team, with squads of boxers, bicyclists, oarsmen, fencers, wrestlers, swimmers, weight-lifters and yachtsmen.

Headliners Today

Janusz Kosciuszki, Polish Olympic running star, has arrived in the United States for the international games. He is one of Europe's best.

Oliver Halassy, though he has lost his left leg, is European 1,500-meter champion swimmer and a member of Hungary's Olympic water polo team.

Olympic Candidate

MISS ELEANOR HOLM

Miss Eleanor Holm, brilliant New York swimmer, moved closer to a chance in the Olympic swimming events when she cracked the world's record for the 220-yard back-stroke event in the recent Metropolitan A. U. championships. Her time was three minutes flat.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

In the forepart of the bout Stoy shot lefts as he retreated before Rodgers who walked in with his gloves covering his chin like a hat. Rodgers scored to the body. Stoy was fat. He weight 129 and Rodgers 119.

The French Olympic team has arrived without its wine in America and already Leon Breto has declared that the "lack of wine will make the most difference to the weight men. To the others it is mainly annoying" he said in New York Tuesday.

Talking about bass. Here's one that certainly would have delighted the heart of anyone who would have caught him. "This time the catch was made by Ralph Miller of Vine street. It was 17 inches long.

According to Miller he got the bass in the Neshannock at Volant. He used a soft shell crab. Last evening the Neshannock was dotted with fishermen. Many of them were in the vicinity of Neshannock Falls.

CLIFTON FLATS WIN
Clifton Flats baseball team won from the West Side Indies 10 to 9 in a game at the Clifton Flats field. The game was featured by heavy hitting.

OAKLAND REDS TAKE TWO

Emil Loeffler Wins Second Prize In State Open At Oakmont Course

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 13.—Vincent Eldred, Pittsburgh linksman, today supplanted Felix Serafin, of Scranton, as the Pennsylvania state open champion. Eldred who shared in "place" money in the national open and western open tournaments, two major events, carded an aggregate of 306 strokes for 72 holes of play, three strokes better than the runner-up.

Second place prize money went to Emil Loeffler, local entry, who after floundering about the center of the scoring list for 54 holes spurred in spectacular fashion on the final round to score a total of 309.

Two Are Tied

Two contestants were stymied for third place honors at 311. These were Ed. Dudley, the Concordville campaigner and pre-tourney favorite, and Perry Del Vichio, Greenburg, credited with recording the lowest score attained on individual rounds. His 73 for the initial 18 stations played on Monday was unequalled in the contests.

Another pair also deadlocked at 315 each for fifth place. They were Pete O'Hara West Penn open titlist, and J. Woody Platt, Philadelphia, whose score was unquestionably the best turned in by amateur entries.

The last three cash awards were taken by Joe Ludes, 318; Sam Parks Jr., 319 and Ted Luther, 320.

Serafin Blows Up

Fred Brand Jr., gold team captain at Penn State college, finished second among the simon pures with a 326 total, one better than Maurice Lebosquet, ex-champion of West Penn amateurs.

A steady brand of golf was played by Serafin, the defending champion, until he rounded the ninth pin to start. The home-coming trip of the last round. He took a 45, 10 strokes over par, for an 86 in the afternoon play and a total of 317 for the tournament.

THIRD U. P. LOSES

Barbers defeated the Third U. P. seven to four on the Buckeye field yesterday. The Barbers outbit the Second U. P. A. Cowmeadow, Jones and A. McNickle hit home runs. A. Cowmeadow also turned in a triple.

Volant Defeats Cloverleaf, 4-2

Volant and Cloverleaf met in a National division, Twilight league game and Volant came through four to two. Van Eman and Miller held the Cloverleaf at bay when hits meant runs and errors behind three Cloverleaf pitchers did not help them any. Grim and H. Gray delivered doubles. Rudolph stole a pair of bases.

Score by innings:

Volant 010 201 0-4 9 1

Cloverleaf 100 001 0-2 7 4

Batteries: Volant, Miller, Van Eman and Grim; Cloverleaf, H. Gray and B. Gray. Umpires—Huttsler and Fulkerson.

Ryantown Plays West Side A. C.

Ryantown and the West Side A. C. will meet at 6:30 p. m. D. S. T. today on the Ryantown field. Arrangements have been made to have association umpires officiate. A good crowd is expected to see the game.

Babe Ruth Is Being Slowed Up By Hurlers

Big Slugging Star Of Yanks Has Only 24 Homers Against 34 For Jimmy Foxx

INDIANS AGAIN DEFEAT MACKS

By COPELAND C. BURG
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 13.—Whatever chance of Babe Ruth's being the big home run slugger of the Yankees was beaten by the fact that he was out of the lineup for the first time in a long while.

Maybe the old rotarian is out of the lineup for the first time in a long while.

Anyway here it is mid-July with the Yankees in the summer underwear already and Babe has only 24 home runs stored away in the pinstriped uniform.

Whereas Jimmy Foxx of the Athletics has 34 and if you don't mind going to Philadelphia Chuck Klein in the National League has 25, and among the league leading hitters the great Ruth is as absent as corned beef hash at the Ribitz.

At that, don't think we're always belittling. The noble Yankee didn't get a hit yesterday as the royal Rupperts gloomed the St. Louis Browns 4 to 2 but he got on by walking twice and scored two runs, lumbering home like a Carnera in the sixth to tie the score, so when Bill Ben Chapman homered with one on all argument ceased.

Gap Is Widened

The Yank won widened their lead as the Athletics collapsed again before the Cleveland Indians, 7 to 6. Grove was hit for 18 smacks by the Ohio agents, Eddie Morgan grabbing off a homer.

The league leading Pirates saddened Brooklyn once more, a triple by Dugas in the twelfth inning rolling it off, 8 to 7. Johnny Frederick pinch-hit a homer in the ninth to tie the things up.

Pat Malone wouldn't give the Boston Braves more than eight safeties and then singled hit two out in the ninth to come home with the run that won, 4 to 3 for the Chicago Cubs.

Mr. Appling, shortstop for Chicago's pale one, stuttered loud and long in the tenth, when Spencer cracked a single and Washington scored to record a 13 to 2 triumph.

Giants Tame Reds

Cincinnati started paying rent in the cellar again, a wild throw by Morrissey giving the Giants a 4 to 3 edge in the ninth.

Bob Kline was a better pitcher than Vic Sorrell and Boston's Sox beat Detroit 3 to 2.

Homers by Jim Collins and Watkins put on the platter, 7 to 6, for St. Louis over the Phillies.

Carnegie Tennis Tourney Resumed

After a lapse of several days the Carnegie playground tennis tourney is being resumed. The tourney will likely come to a close Thursday afternoon.

Quite a number of interesting matches were played on Tuesday. Mike Perrett defeated Rocco Vigan, 6-3. Later in the afternoon, Mike Perrett defeated Rocco Vigan, 6-3. Later in the afternoon, Mike Perrett defeated Rocco Vigan, 6-3.

Bob Kline was a better pitcher than Vic Sorrell and Boston's Sox beat Detroit 3 to 2.

Homers by Jim Collins and Watkins put on the platter, 7 to 6, for St. Louis over the Phillies.

Joe Negro also loomed among the favorites by upsetting Andy Barlett an old time tennis star 6-3. Negro also defeated Louis Lerner 6-4.

Albert Briggs defeated John Roman 6-2. Walter "Tad" Thorn is the supervisor of the tourney and also the Carnegie playgrounds.

Merchants Trim Indies 5 To 4

East New Castle Merchants baseball team handed the New Wilmington Indies a 5 to 4 setback in a game played at the Shenango High field last evening. The game was a regular pitching battle with B. Herriott allowing the Merchants only seven off of Lutz. The Merchants won the game in the final inning by shoving over a run on bunched hits, with one man out. Wetch was the star batter with two doubles, while Lutz and Sheafie also smote doubles.

Score by innings: R H E. Merchants . . . 030 001 0-4 7 1. Indies . . . 000 220 01-5 6 2.

Batteries: New Wilmington—Herriott and Blake; Merchants—Lutz and Carnushe. Umpire—Lytle.

St. Vitus Team Tops Maitlands

St. Vitus team handed the Maitlands a 14 to 8 defeat in a mull game at the B. & O. Field. The St. Vitus team won the game with a rally in the ninth inning that produced eight runs. J. Fonzono featured the game with a home run, a triple and two doubles. L. Ross, Yerage and J. Genneck also hit the ball hard.

Score by innings: R H E. St. Vitus . . . 230 000 108-14 17 2. Maitlands . . . 220 000 013-8 9 4.

Batteries: Maitlands, R. Bullard and J. Bullard; St. Vitus, J. Fonzono and J. Genneck. Umpires—Alfredo and Manger.

J. Donegan, second baseman had a good day when All Stars beat Colonial A. C. He had two runs, three hits, four putouts and two assists.

His teammate, Hurler Thornton went him better. He had two runs, three hits, four putouts and two assists.

The fans were kept on their feet by home run clouting. Warso. E. Donegan and J. McCann hit for four bases.

Pearson Stars won a double-header from the Forrest Stars, 17 to 5 and 17 to 4. Capp hit a home run.

The Scarazzo-Brent, Lawrence County League clash ended 11 to 7, in favor of Scarazzo. Fahey hit a home run.

Fiz Rodenbaugh has achieved his desire to hurl a no run, no hit game. He turned the trick against West Side Tigers.

Fans will be grieved to hear that Clem General, one of the most popular ball players ever hereabouts may be out of baseball.

While playing indoor ball he darted for first and when he thought his head would strike a pane of window glass threw up his hand.

His right hand plunged through the glass, severing half his wrist. Several tendons were cut.

Clem was a good ball player and every fan in the county hopes that he will regain the use of several of his fingers on his right hand.

Henry fielded his position splendidly when he pitched against West Side A. C. He had three putouts. The Merchants of East New Castle won.

Work of lining up the schedule for the New Castle Golf League, has been completed by the schedule committee, consisting of Walt Vogan, Tucker Nolan and Frank Summers, and play will be started on Thursday evening, July 14, at the Municipal course. On the following Thursday, July 21, the matches will be played on the Castle Hills course.

Groundkeeper Johnny Reed has gotten the Municipal Course in wonderful shape, and it will be in splendid condition for the opening play on this week.

Addition of a team representing the New Castle Bankers to the league completes the roster of twelve teams, who will play each other on the two local public courses.

The opposing teams drawn for Thursday evening are as follows: play being scheduled to start at 5:30.

Bell Telephone Co. vs. Shenango.

Pennsylvania Power vs. Pennsylvania Engineering Works.

Reynolds, Summers and McCann vs. Bankers.

Black-McJunkin Dairy vs. Pennsylvania R. R.

South Side Merchants vs. Blair Strip Steel.

Dentists vs. New Castle News.

The schedule for the balance of the season will be published later in the week.

Team captains are requested by the league to be at the Municipal course ready to tee off at 5:30 so there will be no delay in starting the matches.

Kearns Marries Southern Girl

Jack Kearns, Former Manager Of Jack Dempsey, Weds Rich Kentucky Girl

(International News Service) NEW YORK, July 13.—Jack Kearns, sleek and brainy fashion-plate who managed Jack Dempsey, has married the daughter of a wealthy Kentucky Colonel it became known today.

He and Miss Lillian Kansler, 23 of Louisville, were wed last night at the home of Mickey Walker, former middleweight champion, in Shrewsbury, N. J. Jack is Mickey's manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker attended the couple and the Rev. Henry Owens of Red Bank performed the ceremony in the room where Mickey and the former Clara Helmer, of Brooklyn, were married in February, 1931, with Kearns as best man.

With Mr. and Mrs. Walker, the newlyweds plan to sail shortly for Europe where Kearns is hopeful of arranging a bout between Mickey and Larry Gains, British heavy-weight.

The bride's father is Col. John K. Kansler, a retired Louisville business man.

RAIL GROUP IS HEAVY TODAY

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, July 13.—The Stock Market developed a stronger tone today and American Telephone rushed ahead for a fractional gain. Sympathetic strength was shown in North American Public Service Gas.

Auburn, at its extreme low of 48, was down 4 1/2 points on the day. The specialty stocks as Coca Cola, American Can and others showed a steady tone.

Steel stocks were steady under the stimulus of the rebound in operations as reported by Iron Age with U. S. Steel fractionally higher. The rail group, though, showed a tendency toward heaviness with Union Pacific fractionally under yesterday's close.

Board Authorizes Payment Of Superintendent's Salary At Meeting Tuesday

ELLWOOD CITY, July 13.—Ellwood City's school board accomplished quite a bit at their regular meeting in the Lincoln building last night.

The board voted to pay former Superintendent Smith's salary after it was withheld for a short period. In moving out of his office, it was reported that Superintendent Smith has taken with him or destroyed some valuable school records. The salary was withheld for this reason, or until facts were secured. An investigation revealed that no records essential to a succeeding superintendent were missing. Therefore the board authorized the payment of the salary. Dr. H. E. Helling praised Mr. Smith for his several years of service to the community and said that he had known him as always a square and above board man. Dr. Helling also expressed a wish that the former superintendent would acquire a better position that he had held and thought that he was getting one.

A formal authorization was given at this meeting for the painting of the Ellwood City library, which was necessary since there was no appropriation made for this. This resulted as an agreement with council which offered to give free electricity to the library if the school board would paint it. The painting will be finished by the end of the week.

The school board calendar as presented by Superintendent DeLong was accepted by the board. According to the calendar school will begin on Thursday, September 1, which will give the several principals two days for organization before the actual work begins, and offset the holidays which come next May.

Repair work in the various buildings is rapidly progressing according to the report of the building committee. Chairman Dr. Helling suggested that a safety device be erected on a stairway in the Hartman building which will prevent children from being injured in case of a fall. The hazard there comes at the winding of the stairs, which from the third floor to the first gives an appearance of a deep well.

A strong screen was proposed to be installed at the top of each stairway. Three years ago a child had the experience of falling there. Fortunately the fall was only from the first floor and the child escaped with a few bruises. The board proposes to send a drawing of their plan to eliminate the danger to the state department for approval.

The repairing of the ceiling in the Hartman building was left in the hands of their contractor who will assume all responsibility for a satisfactory job.

As a result of a question by Chairman of the Athletic committee, James Fitzgerald, the board plans to acquire an estimate on the material and labor for installing a new floor in the Lincoln High gymnasium which is in poor condition. It was pointed out that the cost of material and labor now is very cheap and that the board could get the work done at half the price it was done in the past.

The board voted to push the collection of the 1931 delinquent taxes. President J. A. Evans stated that he had received a verbal opinion from the New Castle solicitor that the tax collector is liable for every cent charged to him. The board can collect its due taxes from him or his bondsmen. It was stated that there is still $10,000 due the school district in delinquent taxes for 1930-31. No leniency will be shown for those who are capable of paying their taxes and have not done so.

BASEBALL GAME
ELLWOOD CITY, July 13.—The initial game of the Wurttemberg baseball team will be held tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock at the Wurttemberg field when they meet the New Galilee team.

Neptune's Daughter

Because of her prowess as a swimmer, because she is a diving champion, because she has a perfect cut of sun-tan, and we suspect because she strongly resembles Joan Crawford, Barbara Michaels, above, has been awarded the title of "Neptune's Daughter", at Miami Beach, Fla. That means she's queen of the Miami sands.

Board Falls In With State Wide Movement To Cut Additional Expense

ELLWOOD CITY, July 13.—Ellwood school board members were not long in seeing an opportunity to cut expenses here. A communication or rather more of a recommendation from the secretary of the district, Edward M. Cox, favoring elimination of the Teacher's Institute in the state and cut down additional expenses was eagerly accepted and passed by the board.

The communication revealed that this is a state wide movement whose followers are increasing daily. Secretary G. Blaine Hancher announced that this will be a saving of $2,000 annually. The hundred some teachers who were attending this institute in Ellwood City were receiving $4 a day. The result of the board's action last night will be sent to Mr. Cox who is collecting the replies to send to the state department.

Praise School Board
For Economy Stand

ELLWOOD CITY, July 13.—Ellwood City Board of Education at their regular meeting in the Lincoln building last night, received a communication from the Foremen's Club.

The club which is an organization of about 200 officers, foremen, citizens and taxpayers resident in the district heartily commended the efforts of the Board of Education to lighten the burden of taxation by instituting certain economies. The club praised the board for their prompt and adequate attention to the needs of the community and its courage in putting its considered conclusions into practice.

Last Rites Held
For R. D. Turner

Well Known Ellwood City Man
Laid To Final Rest Tuesday
Afternoon

ELLWOOD CITY, July 13.—The last rites for R. D. Turner, 67, long a highly respected resident of Ellwood City, were held yesterday afternoon from the late home on Glen avenue.

The home was a flood of flowers, showing the high esteem the deceased was held by his fellow townsmen. The home was open to all friends until 12 o'clock after which only the relatives and intimate friends remained. The services were in charge of the Rev. Bernie G. Oschhouse of the First Baptist church who was assisted by the Rev. J. R. Routledge of the Providence Baptist church and the Rev. Charles Z. Bell. Rev. Routledge read the scripture and Rev. Bell offered prayer.

The pallbearers were six of the most intimate friends of Mr. Turner. They were H. D. Cunningham, Robert Mains, William Hall, Sam Porter, Frank Ferrell, and Lyle Shaffer. Interment took place at 2 o'clock in the Locust Grove cemetery. Relatives were present from Pittsburgh, Sharon, Evans City, Mercer, Greenville, Stoneboro, and New Castle.

Reach Agreement With Perry Township For Tuition
Payment Here

ELLWOOD CITY, July 13.—Following their recent action of cutting the tax millage for the Ellwood City schools, the board of education accepted the recommendation of Supt. DeLong and the finance committee of lowering the tuition rates for the local schools. The sum was set at $4 for the grade schools and $10 for the high school. This is a reduction of 20 per cent over last year.

The proposition offered by Perry township in paying their tuition and other debts to the local school district was accepted in full by the board last night. The township representatives hope to pay the Ellwood district the sum of $1,000 in cash in August when their state appropriation arrives and give a note for the balance which will be payable when the township is capable.

New Life-Saver for Aerial Travelers

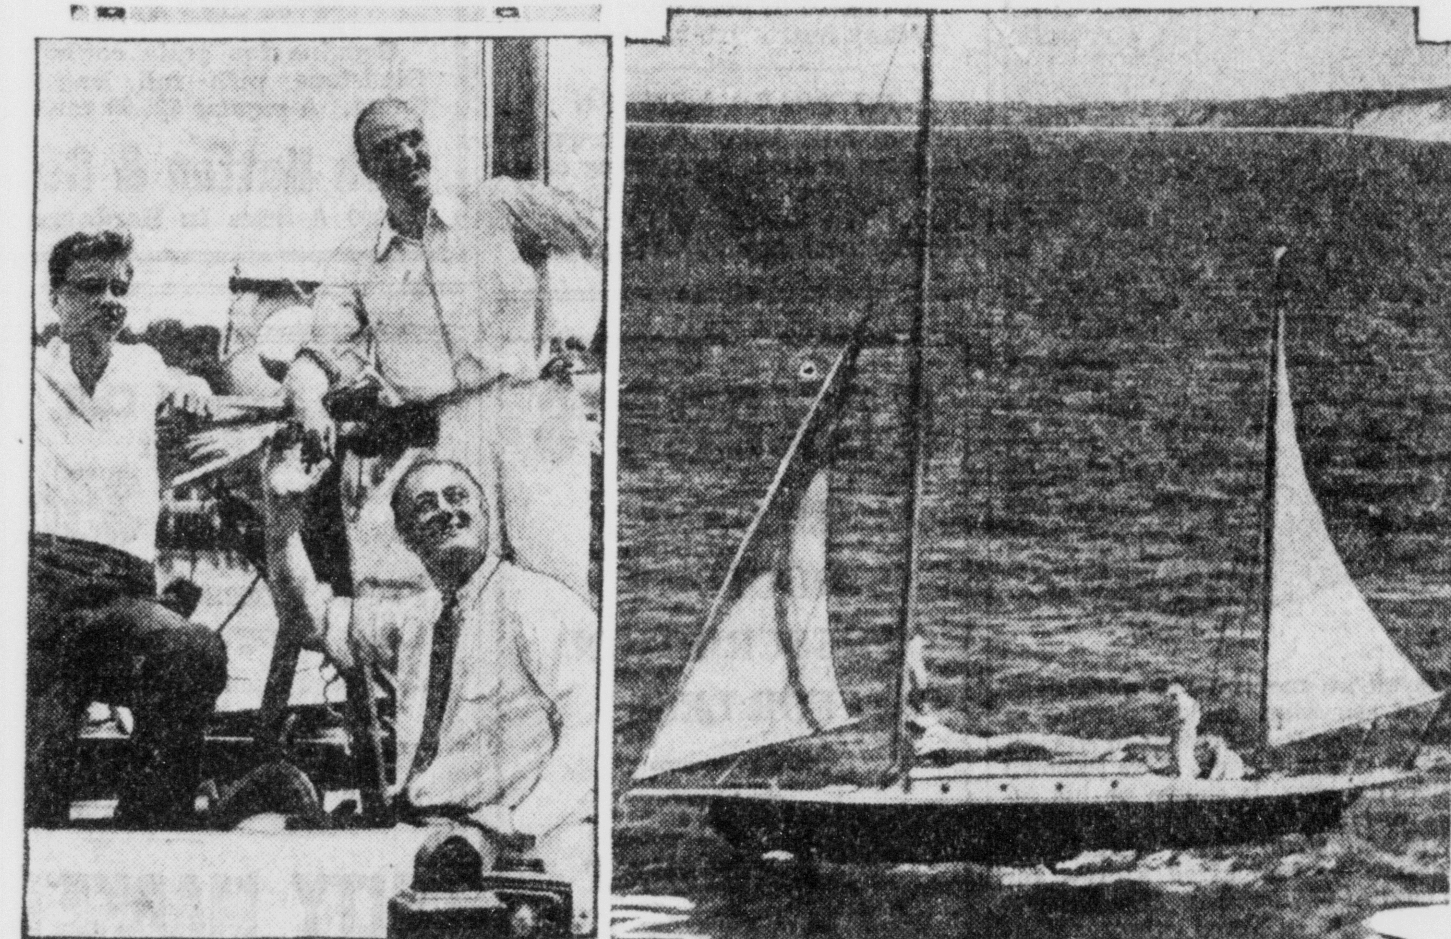

The risks of air travel may be said to be virtually eliminated if, and when, this device is universally adopted. That is the claim of the inventor, Harvey P. Trusty of Los Angeles. The device operates thusly: each passenger is strapped into his, or her, seat which is attached to a 28-foot parachute packed outside the fuselage of the plane. In an emergency the pilot pulls a lever; a sliding door opens and the seats and their occupants are thrown clear of the plane, the parachutes opening automatically. Above at left are two fair passengers testing the device. At right the new aerial life-saver is shown in operation in the air. The parachutes have not yet come into view. Happy Landings, ladies!

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Near Victims Are Still In Nervous State

Eighth Street Residents, Nearly Drowned Saturday, Ill
From Shock

Although it has been four days since their terrifying experience, Mary Belle King, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. King of 409 Eighth street, and Mrs. Betty Peterson, 23, wife of Lloyd R. Peterson, of 411 Eighth street, are still suffering from shock and their condition was reported last evening as being not much improved.

The King girl and Mrs. Peterson are the swimmers of last Saturday who were so nearly drowned in Mahoning river. They were saved by the quick aid of C. O. Stevenson, 408 Seventh street, and a Mr. Jones, who was visiting here from Youngstown, O.

They, along with a number of others bathed, were in at "the island" located in the part of the river at the end of West Clayton street. The water was quite high and it is reported there was a slight current at the vicinity where the bathers were.

Seeing the two girls in trouble, Mr. Stevenson who was on the bank and fully clothed, dove in and went to their help. He didn't even pause to take his pipe from his mouth, other witnesses state. The nearly prostrate girls were brought to the bank, later taken to their homes. They have been under the care of physicians ever since.

PLANKS ON FIRE

Several planks on a small bridge on East Cherry street caught on fire Monday evening, shortly after five o'clock. The seventh ward fire department answered the call and extinguished the blaze.

B. And O. To Have Outing At Park Tomorrow

Thursday, July 14, will draw a large crowd of local people to Cascade Park, to attend a picnic outing of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Veterans and Auxiliary members. It will be one of the largest railroad employees' events in many a month—and just as enjoyable as such an event always is.

A program of sports is being arranged for both men and women and will be presented following the picnic supper.

The picnic is a basket affair; those attending will also bring table service, bread and butter. Coffee and cream, the committee announces today, will be furnished.

Club Breakfast Given On Tuesday

Twenty members, husbands and special guests of the B. W. R. club gathered for breakfast early Tuesday morning at Cascade Park. The occasion was enjoyed by everyone. After breakfast was served in the Park grove bathing was a pleasant pastime of the remainder of the morning.

Special guests were Mrs. Ola Branscome and Mrs. Croxton Prestly, both of New Castle.

CROQUET REVIVAL?

Is the old fashioned game of croquet starting a come-back? So it would seem in seventh ward, with several new sets being erected on the lawns of homes in the northern and western parts of the district. Several players were noticed on North Liberty street and Maple street croquet courts Tuesday.

M. E. G. AUXILIARY

The regular meeting of the M. E. G. Auxiliary of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church will be held at the home of Mrs. Raymond Fisher on West Clayton street Thursday evening instead of with Miss Ethel Scheidmante as previously announced.

Youth Gets Jail Sentence Because Of His Attitude

Alec Prener, 18, Pennsylvania avenue, probably realized today that outright sassing of police or constables doesn't pay.

Prener was doing a 10-day county jail stretch for disorderly conduct at a swimming hole along Big Run, just a few feet outside of the city limits. Constable Walter R. Waddington arrested him last night after residents had complained that an unruly gang was bathing in a natural.

Waddington made two trips to the place, warning the youths the first time. He took Prener in tow after he was called a second time. Waddington charged the young man sassed him sarcastically on his last trip.

Justice of the Peace Benjamin Thomas sent him to jail in default of fine and costs.

Improved Highways Are Being Connected With A Gravel Road

Divisional Road Superintendent, H. W. Lightner had a conference with the county commissioners this morning on matters pertaining to roads of the county. The only project which Superintendent Lightner has on at present is the surfacing of about 3½ miles of road in Plaingrove township with gravel. This road leaves the Perry Highway about one half mile north of Harlansburg and connects with the Plaingrove improved road just south of what is known as the Bevard property at Plaingrove.
